

HUNDREDS OF TURKS ARE MASSACRED

MURDER IS THE CHARGE.

Los Angeles Man Accused of Killing a Waitress.

Got False Certificate and Wanted Body Buried at Once.

LOS ANGELES, August 12.—C. F. Webster, a coffee and tea dealer, is in the custody of the police pending the result of the inquest to be held this afternoon on the remains of Miss Jessie Bailey, the waitress, whom the police believe was murdered some time Monday night or Tuesday morning. Webster's detention is the result of investigations which led to the suspicion that he was connected with the case. It is known that he had known Miss Bailey for two years and that he had been with her the night before her death.

Investigation into the manner of the woman's death and the cause are thus largely based on theory. It is not explained how she received the terrible blow over the heart that broke two ribs without leaving a mark. The fact that Webster was in apparent haste to have the body interred and has made conflicting statements regarding his actions give grounds for his detention. He procured a death certificate from the hospital authorities immediately after the woman's death, ascribing the cause to morphine poisoning. The certificate was refused by the undertaker, and the autopsy which revealed the evidences of murder followed.

INSTANTLY KILLED.

SEATTLE, Wash., August 12.—Duncan Courage, an iron worker, was instantly killed in the shipyard of the Moran Brothers Company this morning. Courage was working on a scaffold inside of the battleship Nebraska. Another workman attempted to stop by Courage and missed his footing. He grabbed Courage and both men fell a distance of sixty feet. Courage struck first and his partner fell on top of him. Courage was scarcely hurt, but his partner was severely hurt.

PAVILION IS SOLD.

LOS ANGELES, August 12.—An announcement was made today of the sale of Hazard's Pavilion by the estate of the late John H. Hazard to the Exposition Company. The price named is $30,000. Hazard's Pavilion is one of the landmarks of Los Angeles and for many years has been in use for conventions, concerts and sporting events.

DRIVER AND HORSES KILLED.

LOS ANGELES, August 12.—Frank A. Farías, a rancher, was instantly killed by a Santa Fe passenger train at a crossing two miles south of Ingleswood on the Redondo line. Farías was driving a two-horse wagon and failed to hear the approaching train. The impact killed both horses and threw Farías a distance of fifty-five feet, fracturing his skull and breaking both legs. A companion escaped unhurt.

SLAUGHTER AT KENATI.

BULGARIAN PEASANTS.

Only Twenty People Escaped—Insurgent Banner Unfurled—Blood Will Now Flow.

SALONICA, August 12.—It is reported that Bulgarian insurgents have massacred the inhabitants of the large Turkish village of Kenati, near Monastir.

Only twenty escaped. The civil and military authorities at Salonica wired to Constantinople August 11th, stating that a general insurrection was expected for August 14th, and disclaiming all responsibility, unless they were reinforced. Constantinople replied, ordering the enrollment of 2000 exclusively gendarmes for services in Salonica.

The insurgent banner was unfurled August 10th at Kiosko, near Giergeli, showing that the insurrection is spreading eastward.

According to the latest advices from Monastir, dated August 10th, the Bulgarians are elated at the death of the Russian Consul.

Four thousand troops are bombarding Krushevo, which is in the hands of the insurgents and the Bulgarians in the Krushevo and Reka districts are suffering severely.

Insurgent bands frequently visit Kastoria. A big fight is proceeding at Davlat, near Monastir.

Trustworthy information from Chagani, in the district of Florina, says the Turks have decided to murder the Austrian Consul.

Great anxiety prevails at Monastir owing to the threatening attitude of the Turkish soldiers. It is said that the French and Italian Consuls are in danger of their lives.

Fighting is proceeding at Chernareka, near Gumenje, to which place reinforcements have been sent.

A great movement of troops is proceeding at Mitrovitza, Salonica and Borovitch.

ALI PASHA EXILED.

CONSTANTINOPLE, August 12.—Ali Riza Pasha has been dismissed from his post as wali of Monastir and has been exiled to Tripoli.

WM. D. ENGLISH IS VERY LOW.

The condition of William D. English today shows a slight improvement over last evening, but he has scarcely held his own during the past two days. At this stage the lack of improvement is a discouraging symptom. This is the sixth day since he was operated on, and the failure to respond is evidence that the favorable reaction has not yet set in.

Mr. English's wound is doing very well, indeed, but his vitality is low, showing the effects of the shock. The physicians admit that his condition is precarious, but they say he still has a chance of pulling through. If a favorable reaction sets in during the next twelve hours, they will feel hopeful of his recovery. This morning Drs. Adams and Krone were in consultation with Dr. Crowley, which may be taken as evidence that the case is at a critical stage.

CANADA CUP RACE. TORONTO, Ont., August 12.—The 15th and deciding race for the Canada's cup was started today. The course was triangular of 21 miles—7 miles to a log. The wind at the start was light from the shore, real. Strathcona weather. The betting, however, was 2 to 4 on the American boat.

EXTRA SESSION IS SURE.

Finances of the Nation Are Fully Discussed.

Republican Leaders Meet at the President's Home.

OYSTER BAY, L. I., Aug. 12.—President Roosevelt's conference with the members of the Senate Finance Committee, was not concluded until the small hours of this morning. The whole subject of financial legislation at the approaching session of Congress was discussed thoroughly.

The committee, consisting of Senators Aldrich, chairman, Platt, of Connecticut, Allison and Spooner, did not present even a tentative draft of a currency bill to the President although some presentations which subsequently may be embodied in the measures were reduced to concrete form. No definite conclusions as to the shape of the proposed legislation were reported. The conference related rather to methods of procedure in the work at hand than to the form of the legislation. At 7:30 this morning the members of the Committee left Sagamore Hill, boarded their yacht, the Virginia, and sailed for Providence on their return to Senator Aldrich's home at the residence of Senator Aldrich.

The primary purpose of the extraordinary session will be to enact legislation making operative the Cullen reciprocity treaty, but financial legislation also will be presented before the attention of Congress soon after it convenes. It can be said that the finance committee will draft no measure formally and conclusively until consultation has been held with other members of the Senate. The committee will be in session with members of the House and with the best authorities on finance in the country. It is the desire of the committee to be constantly in touch with the President, with other Senators, with members of the House, with bankers of the West as well as those of the East, and with country bankers as well as city bankers, so that some plan of legislation may be formed by the opening of the extraordinary session of Congress.

It is the hope of the committee to define a genuinely elastic currency system—a system that will expand when the necessity shall arise and contract when the necessity shall have ceased to exist.

Senator Aldrich, when asked by an American Press reporter with reference to the visit of the Senators to the President, said: "The Republican members of the sub-committee of the Senate Finance Committee, who recently met for an informal conference at Warwick, R. I., talked with the President about financial conditions and the need of legislative changes. No bill has been drafted or agreed upon and none will be until after the fullest consultation with our Democratic associates of the sub-committee and all the members of the Finance Committee. It is, however, our purpose to have a bill in readiness for presentation to the Senate at the beginning of the extra session, if, one shall be called, in October or November. We are hopeful that a bill can be agreed upon and reported that will receive the approval of both houses of Congress and afford prompt and efficient relief to the business interests of the whole country."

SCHOONER LAUNCHED.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 12.—A new three-masted schooner was launched today at the Fulton Iron Works for the J. R. Hanly Lumber Company. She was named the Sausalito and will be used in the coasting trade.

KILLED BY A LOG.

UKIAH, Cal., Aug. 12.—John Gristman, a laborer in the employ of the Northwestern Redwood Company at Ukiah, has been found dead in the woods. He was clearing a skid road above the mill and had sawed a log to get it out of the way. He was working on the under side and the log rolled over him.

FIREMAN ADJUTANT.

PEORIA, Ill., Aug. 12.—The Grand Lodge of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, who have been in session here for three weeks, today adjourned. Their report given out today shows total disbursements for the year of $150,000. There are 61 subordinate lodges with a membership of 49,563, a gain of 5192 during the past year.

SALISBURY IS VERY ILL.

LORD SALISBURY.

England's Ex-Premier May Be Dying At His Home in London.

LONDON, Aug. 12.—Lord Salisbury is seriously indisposed according to information received here direct from his family at Hatfield House.

The Ex-Premier is greatly exhausted and physicians are in attendance.

Lord Salisbury, whose health was severely shaken by the death of his wife in November, 1899, was ill on the continent during the whole of last winter.

According to the Medical Press and Circular, his Lordship has suffered for years from internal areas.

He was reported to be much improved in health on his return to England, but at the beginning of June he caught a chill, which troubled him considerably. The latest report, however, dated August 7th, said that the Lord Salisbury was preparing an important work on chemical electrical science.

ant is Charles Evans of St. Louis and the amount involved is a few hundred dollars. Adams was released on $2,000 bail. He says he is anxious to face the charge against him in court.

BATTLESHIP IS DAMAGED.

BAR HARBOR, Me., August 12.—Late this afternoon, divers who had been examining the Massachusetts, which had her forward plates cracked while leaving the harbor in a fog yesterday, found that she was more seriously damaged than was at first thought to be the case as the ship was settling aft as well as forward. The ship will be moved into more shallow water, so that if anything gives way she will not sink deep enough to cause excessive damages. The divers were unable to locate any crack in the after part of the ship.

DOCTOR ACCUSED OF SHARP PRACTICE.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 12.—Dr. E. F. Adams has been arrested here at the request of the St. Louis Police Department on the charge of obtaining money by false pretenses. The complaint

THOUGHT HE WAS LYNCHED.

Ghastly Joke is Played on the Haywards' Coroner.

He Will Have the Conspirators Placed in Prison.

HAYWARDS, August 12.—Adolph Baummeister was found hanging from a cypress tree in front of the Central Hotel at midnight by Deputy Coroner Reynolds. There was a strong rope looped around his neck, the end of which was tied to a limb. His feet were bound in a gully.

Thinking that the man was dead, Deputy Coroner Reynolds pulled out his pocket knife and was about to cut down the hanging form, when, to his consternation, the figure reached up, seized the rope from about his neck, dropped to the ground and laughingly shook hands with the Coroner. Then the megalomaniac realized that he was the victim of a practical joke.

Wanting to enjoy a peaceful Haywards, a crowd of young men about town planned to hang the body of their companion, Baummeister, and then summon the Coroner's official. Selecting a stout branch of the cypress tree in front of the Central Hotel, the jokers threw a rope over it and one end of which they fastened under Baummeister's arms, bringing it about his neck so that to all appearances it would seem that he had been lynched.

When the jokers had strung him up they telephoned to Deputy Coroner Reynolds, and that morning official got out of bed, dressed himself and hurried to the scene of the supposed hanging. After he was made aware that it was only a joke the companions of Baummeister came out of hiding near by and explained it to the Coroner's deputy, but he was angry because of being called out of bed at midnight and he will have the jokers arrested.

COUNTY BURLIES WILL AMS' BODY.

An inquest was held last night on the remains of Hal Williams, the steward on the ship Alga, who committed suicide on the last day of last month by jumping into the bay. A verdict of suicide by drowning was returned.

Mrs. Williams, who was made a widow two days after her marriage by the suicide of her husband, was present at the inquest, but could throw no light on her husband's act.

"I noticed that immediately after our marriage my husband appeared depressed. I asked him what his trouble was, but he wouldn't tell me," in part testified Mrs. Williams.

As the wife is in poor circumstances the body of her husband was today buried at the expense of the county.

HOLDS STONE IN MASSACHUSETTS

SHIP STRIKES HIDDEN ROCK AND COMPARTMENTS FILL WITH WATER.

WASHINGTON, August 12.—Official information regarding the accident to the battleship Massachusetts off Rockland, Maine, yesterday afternoon, has reached the Navy Department in two telegrams from Captain William H. Emery, commanding the battleship Indiana, who is the senior officer present. The department will instruct Captain Emery to stand by the Massachusetts until further information can be obtained. Officials of the department, with the facts in their possession, are unwilling to discuss the extent of the damage, but it is clearly their opinion that the Massachusetts must be repaired at once. "This will be done either at Boston or New York."

The first dispatch from Captain Emery was dated from Rockland, Maine, August 12th, 6 p. m., and is as follows: "Massachusetts touched on Egg Rock shoals, going outside thick fog. Compartments A-7, A-9, A-43, filled with water. Leaks limited to these compartments. Massachusetts steamed back herself to Bar Harbor, and anchored. The Massachusetts signalled for assistance. Indiana, Scorpion and three torpedo boat destroyers answered signals and accompanied Massachusetts to Frenchman's Bay, western anchorage. The destroyers then proceeded without communicating with me. Indiana and Scorpion now anchored alongside Massachusetts. Divers now ascertaining extent of damage. When finished will be immediately telegraphed. Damage appears to be entirely confined to communicating pipes. Request instructions regarding disposition of vessels. Request department to inform commander-in-chief at first opportunity to appoint board to investigate damage. Will forward report soon as made."

The second dispatch, which was timed 11:20 p. m., was as follows: "Investigation of injury to Massachusetts by board cannot be completed until tomorrow, by which time all weights will be removed from forward. Water confined to compartments previously telegraphed. Feel confident Massachusetts will be able to steam to dockyard. Draft of vessel leaving Frenchman's Bay, 26 feet 3 inches forward, 28 feet 10 inches aft. Draft at 6 p. m., 27 feet 11 inches forward, 26 feet 2 inches aft."

"Request orders concerning Indiana and Scorpion, as they are remaining by my orders, standing by Massachusetts. Other vessels here, Hartford, Newport, Calgo, Lebanon. If we are not required to convey Massachusetts, request sail immediately to join fleet."

WAS WANTED IN COURT BUT IS ON HONEYMOON

Because he is away on his honeymoon, J. T. Smith, charged with violating an ordinance, was unable to appear in the Police Court this morning for trial. His examination was continued to tomorrow, when it is expected he will have returned from his honeymoon.

NECROLOGICAL.

Mrs. Mary Sutton, a widow, aged seventy-three years, died yesterday at her residence, 1151 Poplar street, where she has lived the past three years. The remains will be cremated tomorrow.

Miss Mary Lyman, a resident of Santa Rosa, aged forty-four years, died yesterday at Fabiola Hospital, where she went three days ago for treatment. Deceased was a native of New York.

J. A. BLISS BACK.

Assemblyman J. A. Bliss, president of the Oakland Cream Depot, has just returned from a five weeks' pleasure trip to Plumas county. He spent most of his time near Elk Meadows. Mr. Bliss was accompanied by his family and also by Jonathan P. Bliss, his wife and daughter of New York. The trip was a pleasant one.

DEATH TO THE RATS.

DR. FOSTER OF STATE BOARD COMES TO OAKLAND TO CONSULT ABOUT DISEASES.

Dr. N. K. Foster, who served as a member of the last Legislature and who is now secretary of the State Board of Health, came into the city today and had a conference with Health Officer von Aichel, in furtherance of projects which the State Board of Health has inaugurated since its late reorganization.

PURIFYING RIVERS.

"The State Board of Health," said Dr. Foster, "aims to accomplish three things: a view to improving the sanitary condition of the cities of the State and thus ameliorating the condition of the people. One of these is the prevention of the use of the rivers of the State as a means of disposing of urban sewage. The emptying of the sewage of cities into streams tends to the contamination of the water of those streams for the towns below and this has a tendency to breed sickness. Besides, we do not think it just the right thing that streams should be polluted, more especially where the water may be used for drinking and domestic purposes. There is all the more reason for the abolition of this means of disposing of sewage when anyone of several other systems may be employed, among them, sewage farms, impounding tanks in which it may be destroyed and several other methods, some of which are better than work in connection with the State. The beneficial effects which will follow from the destruction of sewage or the utilization of it in such a manner as not to pollute our streams will be well-nigh incalculable."

Another work in which the State Board of Health is engaged is endeavoring to arouse a more general interest in their work among the municipal health officers of the State and inducing them to work in connection with the State. There are many cases in which this could be done with advantage. It would enable them to realize that the body of skilled men, extending all over the State, they could do a great deal to ameliorate the condition of the people by preventing the extension and stamping out of diseases. For the purpose of arousing this feeling of brotherhood among the members of the profession who are holding the important position of health officer, I hope soon to have a meeting of them in San Francisco where they can get acquainted with one another and ascertain what good they might accomplish with a revived spirit of working all over the State, at the same time for the common good.

VITAL STATISTICS.

"In a special manner, the necessity of attending to the vital and mortuary statistics will be encouraged at that meeting. There is a woeful dereliction in the matter of reporting births. This is the result of long inactivity in the enforcement of the law, and perhaps of ignorance of it on the part of some of the health officers and physicians. The obligation to report births to the health officer is not less pronounced than is that of giving the cause of deaths which occur in the practice of the physician. It is governed by a State law which is based on good and practical grounds. It is not complied with because it is not enforced and because doctors feel that it is easier to report than it is to report a birth. I have met some doctors who know how they are offending and some of them have said to me: 'We know we are not doing what we should do. Just prosecute us. It would do us good.'"

DESTRUCTION OF RATS.

"Another thing which the board is encouraging is destruction of rats, as a means of preventing the extension of the plague. There was scarcely a case where the plague was contracted from a patient already affected. It was extended by rats. It is a rat disease anyway and the rats should be exterminated by the use of cats, dogs, poison, now matter how, so they are exterminated."

ORGANIZED LABOR PRINTERS LISTEN TO APPEAL.

MANUFACTURERS' PRESIDENT CRITIZES METHODS OF WORKING UNIONS.

CHAUTAUQUA, N. Y., August 12.—Dr. M. Parry, president of the National Association of Manufacturers, delivered one of the most important addresses before the conference on the "Mob Spirit in America" today.

Mr. Parry spoke on "Mob Spirit in Organized Labor." He said in part: "In this country, in the last year, there have been many mobs of different kinds, but to my mind, the most dangerous of them all is the mob of organized labor. No man, I take it, can object to any kind of association, labor or otherwise, which is organized for lawful and beneficial purposes, but organized labor under the dictation of today, stands convicted by its own leaders as a lawless organization."

"In that it seeks by physical force to override individual rights and that it is continually railing against the laws and denouncing courts and public officials for enforcing those laws, it fulfills all the requirements of the definition of mobocracy. Unlike the lynching bees and the vigilance committees, it is what might be termed a standing mob, ready under the dictation of its officers, and ready upon occasion to commit the overt acts of outrage and destruction which are the outward manifestations of the mob spirit. It declares, in effect, that its will is supreme to traditions, Government regulations and even the Constitution of the country. It asserts that the individual has no inherent rights that cannot be taken from him, and that, therefore, it has the right to say that no man shall work and that no industry shall run without its consent."

"In its attempt to compel a recognition of its pretensions to sovereignty, it relies not on reason, but upon coercion, intimidation and the blade. In its continual preachments against law and its constant appeal to the baser passions of men, it is doing more than any agency to cultivate the mob-spirit and encourage the unfurling of the red flag of anarchy."

"The president of the Chicago Federation of Labor, recently declared in an interview: 'The President deals a death blow to organized labor when he declares that he cannot sit in judgment on the lawless actions of the mob-spirit. It sounds fair on the face of it, but without discrimination we are just where we started. What we have been fighting for is union labor to the exclusion of all other.'"

"These are the words of a conservative among union leaders and they voice the sentiments of the agitators of the country over. To their mind, if you deny the right of their organization to commit illegal acts you are attempting to crush it. If organized labor has only lawless purposes, it ought to be crushed."

"During the last year the attempts to force men to give allegiance to strike bosses in their plans to set up an oligarchy that will control industry independent of the laws of the country, have resulted in mob conditions in many of the leading centers. Supremacy of law and order has been sustained only many severe shocks, but the nation has also lost millions of dollars by the organized idleness of thousands of men. This loss must fall heavier on the man who depends on his daily wage than upon those who have something to fall back upon. It is time that the workmen of this country were learning that for the millions of dollars they pay in salaries to the agitators, they are creating in return nothing but ceaseless trouble, enforced idleness and endless discomforts of life. They are also bidding for the destruction of their most precious possession—their industrial liberty. Their investments in mobocracy are mighty poor investments."

MRS. RICHARDS SUES.

Mrs. Florence Elsie Fawcett-Richards filed a suit for divorce in the Superior Court yesterday from Harry Richards, comic singer, actor, etc., on the ground of extreme cruelty. Besides the divorce, Mrs. Richards seeks the custody of their three children and $30 a month for their support.

The couple were married on May day, 1889. In her complaint, Mrs. Richards alleges that her husband's cruel treatment to herself began shortly after they were married. She states that while he was a member of the Tivoli company he threw books with violence upon the keys of the piano upon which she was playing, and that while the "Way Down East" company, he treated her harshly, calling her names, etc. She states that at one time he said that she was too lazy to get her children ready for Sunday school and referred to her as "that beast of a mother." In 1901, she alleged, he looked her out of the house at midnight and she was forced to appeal to neighbors to secure admission to her home. Soon after this, Richards left his wife in Oakland and took a room for himself in San Francisco and wrote her that he would never see her again. In October, 1901, she says that she sued for a divorce, but her husband begged her to forgive him and she took him back. They lived together from then until June, 1903, during which time Mrs. Richards alleges he has been very abusive toward her. In April last, she says he choked her until her nose bled. She states that Richards is now engaged in paper hanging and gets $4 a day wages.

DR. BOYES FILES WILL.

Dr. E. J. Boyes applied to the Superior Court yesterday to be appointed executor of the will of Mary W. Boutwell, who died on August 7th, leaving a small estate. The deceased left a will, written by herself on October 19, 1898, in which she directed that her property be given to her brother, W. B. Quigley of Sonoma county. Mrs. Boutwell left two sisters residing in this city, but made no mention of them in the will. Mrs. Boutwell formerly conducted a small store at 1522 Seventh street. She stated in her will that she had worked hard for whatever property she had accumulated and desired to dispose of it according to her own wishes. She further declared that she wanted Dr. E. J. Boyes to act as her executor.

Does the Schilling's Best moneyback offer ever get taken? Yes.

On what complaint? The flavoring extracts, for instance, are 2 to 30 times as strong as usual. Said to be inconvenient.

PRINTERS LISTEN TO APPEAL.

PUBLISHERS VOICE VERSION OF STRIKE IN SEATTLE AND SPOKANE.

WASHINGTON, August 12.—The International Typographical Union began its sessions today with a sharp controversy over a motion to distribute a pamphlet prepared by the Newspaper Publishers' Association in criticism of the union's conduct of the printers' strike at Seattle and Spokane, Washington. Objection was made to the circulation of the pamphlet on the ground that it did not bear the union label but President Lynch made an earnest appeal for its acceptance, and his request was granted by a decided vote.

The convention then in accordance with a resolution adopted yesterday, listened to an address by Frederick Driscoll, Commissioner of the Publishers' Association, relative to the strikes in the State of Washington. He disclaimed responsibility for the printing of the publishers' circular without a label, and then proceeded to read a formal statement with sharp criticism of the union and of President Lynch.

Mr. Driscoll said that industrial peace had been enjoyed for more than two years under the plan of arbitration adopted by the association and the union and until the occurrence of the two strikes at Spokane and Seattle, which he characterized as "inexcusable" contended that the reasons put forth justifying these strikes are untenable. He said that "if arbitration had been adhered to a cording to the obligation of our agreement, there would have been no strike or disturbance of our friendly relations."

Continuing, he said: "The National Board of Arbitration should have been organized as provided in the contract in each of the two cases referred to. The board, if it had found prior irregularities, even fraud, if publishers or unions had asked for consideration of subjects not allowed in the contract, has and does possess all necessary power to annul and wipe out all previous proceedings and begin anew from the inception of the issues raised and give an award which would be accepted by all parties in interest."

He said it was not a pleasant duty to criticize the president and executive council of the union and add: "But, as a friend of your organization, as a representative of our organization, as a man and a citizen, I am obliged to enter my protest against these gross violations of our arbitration contract."

Referring to the two cases at issue and stating his contentions representing them, Mr. Driscoll said the existing agreement should be respected and the publishers at Spokane and Seattle rested to the status quo existing before the strike and that they should proceed under the terms of the existing contract to arbitrate and finally settle the difference. He closed with an appeal to the union to do what he regarded as its duty.

Mr. Driscoll's speech was received with applause and the chair announced that it would be referred to the committee on arbitration. He added that the committee reported, he would make a statement in which he hoped to be able to show that the merits of the Washington controversy are not all on one side.

The convention next turned its address by Martin P. Higgins, president of the International Printing Press Men and Assistants' Union. Mr. Higgins said that he had been at one time a member of the typographical union, and knowing Mr. Driscoll's address, he knew when the facts were brought out, it would be a question as to who had broken the contract in connection with the Washington strike.

An address also was made by C. P. Lovelace, president of the Boot and Shoe Workers' Union. He thanked the union for its uniform support of his own organization in its contentions.

The convention next was addressed by Mr. Campbell, of the Textile Workers' Union of Philadelphia, who asked an expression in support of their demand for a reduction of working hours.

BARNES FREED BY TECHNICALITY.

JUSTICE THWARTED BY MARRIAGE OF PRISONER AND THE WITNESS.

Justice, tricked by wizened technicality, appeared disconsolate in court this morning when Deputy District Attorney Harris moved for a dismissal of the charge of grand larceny against William E. Barnes on the ground that he had married the complaining witness in the case and a provision in the Code would not let wife testify against husband. As she was the only witness in the case the prosecution had nothing upon which to base its charge and the case failed.

Barnes was accused of having stolen $35 in cash and a gold watch valued at $250 out of the trunk of Mrs. Anna E. Hughes, living at Twelfth and Clay streets and with the proceeds of the theft went on a three days' spree in San Francisco. Mrs. Hughes swore to the complaint charging him with the crime and his arrest followed. Now she has married the man whom she accused of the crime and his discharge is the result.

His release was not gained, however, in any day. He was sentenced to the manner in which it could be accomplished presented itself to a fertile mind. Barnes was in jail. Personal petition to the District Attorney and the judge by the repentant woman failed in having either of them take the necessary action to free him. They looked upon the case as one that should go to its natural conclusion and upon him as a "gold brick" which they would have purchased the inconsistent widow from buying. But it was not to be. Marriage it was known would free Barnes but the Sheriff would not wink at collusion, and the matter of introducing priest and certificate into the front par of the jail was denied.

One day a bright idea filtered into the brain of some one connected with the case. Barnes' health was suffering from the confinement and would the judge fix the amount of bonds necessary to allow him sufficient liberty in which to recuperate. They were fixed at $2,000 which Mrs. Hughes advanced, as she felt that it was as good as four acres. Once free, the couple immediately repaired to the County Clerk's office and the marriage followed forthwith. The last act of the farce comedy came today with the dismissal of the charge. While the future is big with the possibilities of such a course being known.

BASEBALL

CORBETT'S WORK IS DONE.

EX-CHAMPION WILL REST TO-MORROW—THE CHANGE IN CONDITION.

Like Jeffries, Corbett has finished his training for tomorrow evening's encounter and will spend tomorrow in absolute rest. His last work was done today and consisted principally of very light work, such as shadow fighting and short boxing stunts with Berger and Kenny. Tonight he will retire early and sleep late. Tomorrow he will rest quietly only exercising enough to keep his well-trained muscles pliable. Jim is always willing to talk of the approaching fight and discloses his chances of lifting the championship. In a conversation he stated that it used to be fashionable to say that one never thought of the possibility of becoming one spoke of it, but the man never lived that did not give it considerable thought and was a little nervous. He candidly states that most of his thoughts during the last half of the year have been devoted to the fight. If Corbett is defeated tomorrow evening he will have no excuse to offer for he has had all the time any man could ask for in which to condition himself; he will have a ring that measures exactly twenty-four feet on a side and be allowed to wear soft handgloves. The condition attained by the former champion has been the marvel of all who have seen him. Those who saw him three years ago, when a high living and recklessness had made inroads into his constitution were convinced that his day had passed and that he was to be rated as a "has-been." These same observers have been more than surprised by the way Corbett has developed himself into a dangerous antagonist for Jeffries.

When Corbett first announced his intention of retaining his former position he was laughed at and ridiculed from all sides. No one took him seriously and little dreamed that he had the ambition, determination and grit to grind away, in the face of discouragement, for three years and rejuvenate himself, but he has.

No one but himself knows how hard he has worked to attain his desired end, but by a careful course of exercises, many of them his own invention, he has succeeded in building himself up so that his present condition is even superior to what he had been when he sprang into fame by defeating the great Sullivan in New Orleans. His very determination has won him many friends and he will enter the ring with the backing of many of the shrewdest boxers in America today.

POSTS FORFEIT MONEY.

YOUNG CORBETT PLACES $1,500 IN HARRY CORBETT'S HANDS.

Word comes from Saratoga, New York, that the forfeit has been posted for a fight between Young Corbett of the United States and Ben Jordan of England, for the feather-weight championship of the world. Jordan communicated with Corbett that he would sail from England for America as soon as Corbett had posted the $1500 forfeit to guarantee the fight.

Immediately upon the receipt of Jordan's cable dispatch, Corbett consulted with his manager, Joanne Constable, and the two decided to send the money to Harry Corbett in San Francisco by telegraph.

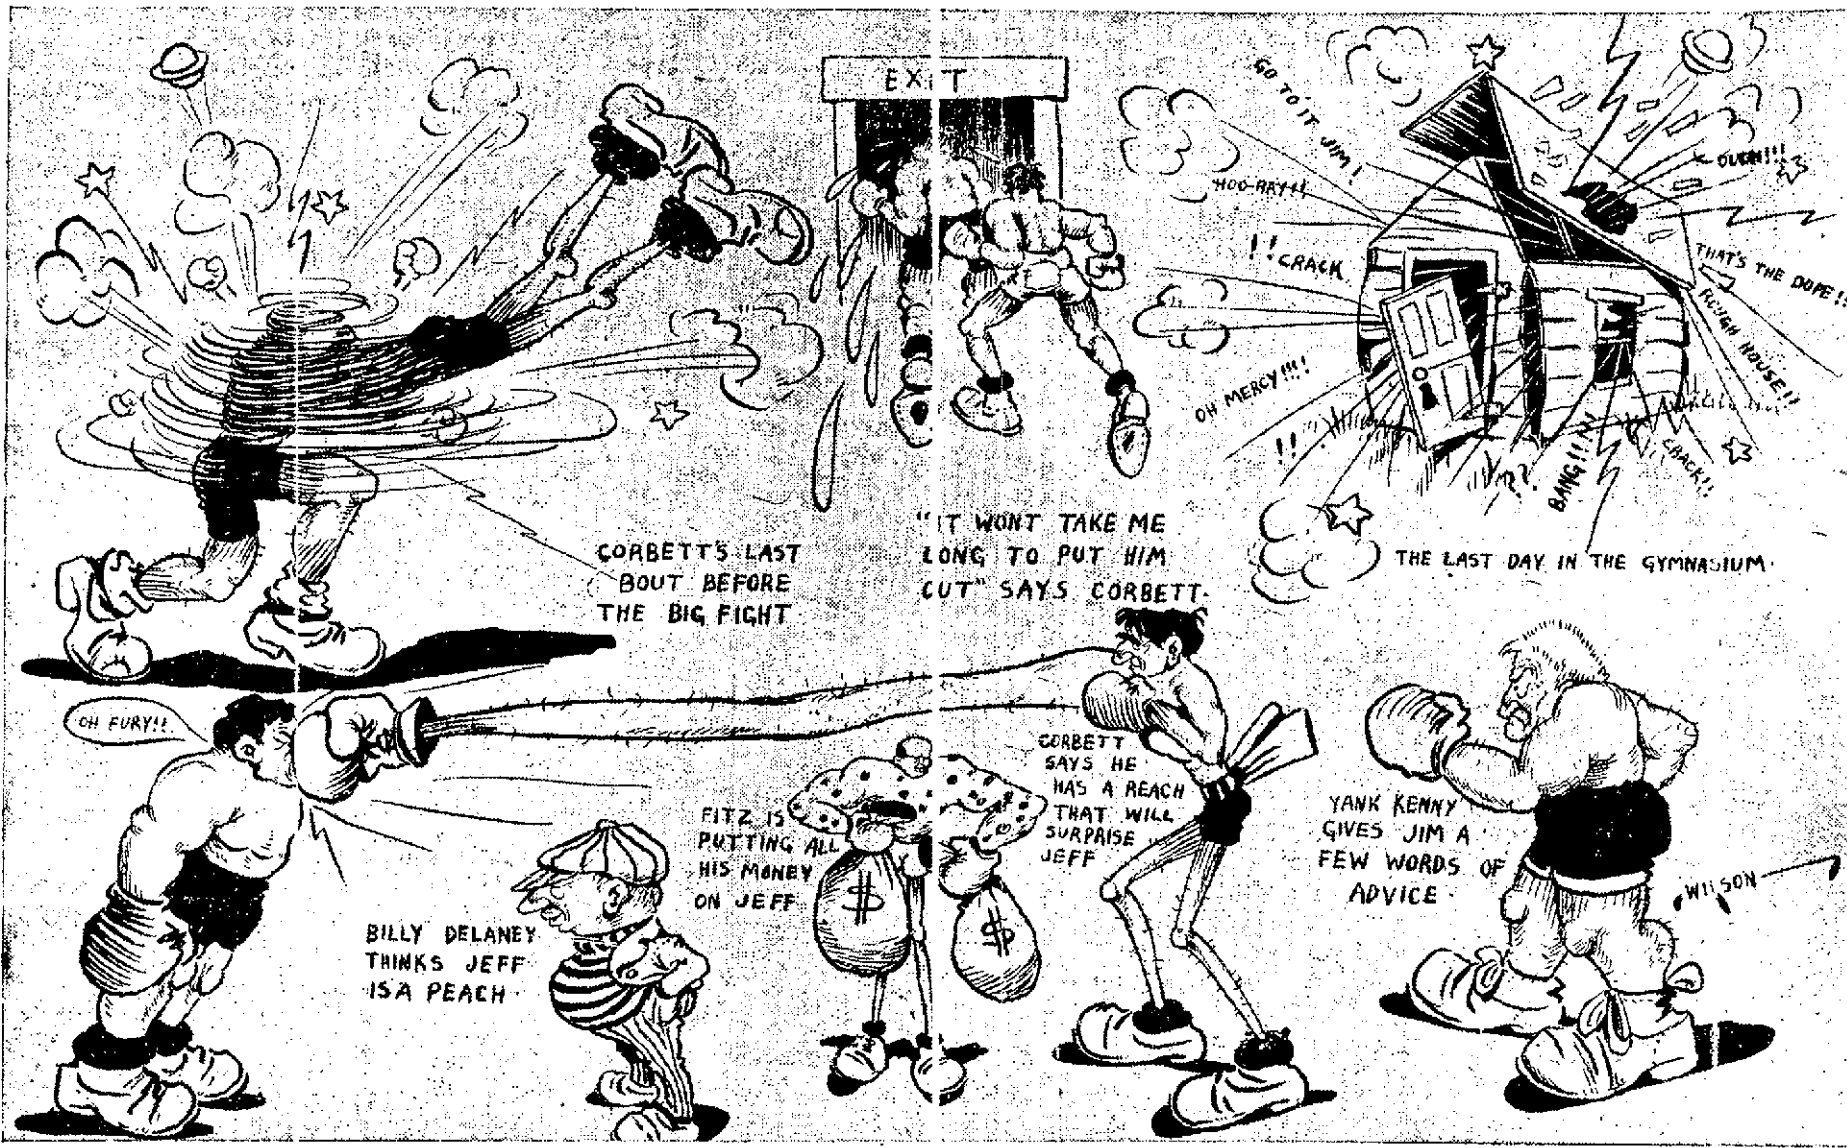

The mill will probably take place some time during the latter part of October.

Each pugilist is the best of his class in the country to which he belongs, so the encounter between them will determine the international champion. Young Corbett has of late been traveling around doing exhibition boxing. He takes on for a few rounds anybody who will fight with him. Recently, once or twice, he came nearly meeting his match as he had been doing practically nothing. He has now decided to take a brace and go all ways in good fighting trim so that no second-class amateur could catch him asleep.

JEFF AND JIM ARE READY FOR THE BIG BATTLE.

JEFF IMPRESSES FRIENDS.

CHAMPION ARRIVES LOOKING BETTER THAN EVER BEFORE—HIS PLANS.

James J. Jeffries jumped from the train at the Sixteenth street depot last evening, shortly after six o'clock, looking the picture of health and was met by a large crowd of enthusiasts. It was the verdict of all who met him that he looked better, stronger, healthier and happier than ever before. He was bubbling over with energy, his eye was bright and clear and his complexion was decidedly bronzed.

His every look and action denoted faithful training and from outward appearances there was not a trace of superfluous flesh on his body. He stated to the admiring throng that his weight, 215 pounds, was the heaviest he had ever carried, but it was all muscle and sinew.

In reply to numerous questions the champion made as long a speech as he has ever been known to make and said: "I cannot quite follow the ideas of the story weavers who have me down as a 'lame lion.' I did as many hours of gymnasium work as ever before, but ran easily on boxing and road work as I was convinced they pulled too much flesh from my bones and were not really necessary. I was gaunt when ready for Fitzsimmons, and I did not intend to be gaunt this time. People will see me faster than I have been seen for a couple of years. I walked after Corbett at New York. This time I will be on the run after him if he attempts to get away by 'go' work. You can't catch a man with the same bait twice. After that fight was over I realized that I had fought him in exactly the way he would have had me fight—sort of a made-to-order proposition for his style of boxing. I'll be there all right Friday night with 'bells on.' Don't let any one tell you that I am not in shape. I am as good right now as ever I was or ever hope to be."

Billy Delaney, Jeff's manager, was in a happy frame of mind and full of confidence as to the outcome of tomorrow evening's fight. He could not say much in praise of the champion's condition and assured the crowd that Jeffries would be an easy winner. He remarked, during the course of the general conversation while waiting for their carriage, that he had heard that the betting was very light and volunteered the information that there would be scarcely any at all if the general public had been allowed to watch the champion at his training quarters.

The party then took their carriage and was driven to the Hotel Metropole, where they will remain during their stay in Oakland, and after dinner the party occupied a box at the Macdonough Theater as the guests of Miss Amelia Ringham. This morning the champion rested quietly, denying himself to all but intimate friends, and this afternoon he is doing a little exercise at the Relevance Club gymnasium. His work there consists of a little shadow fighting and boxing a few fast rounds with Bob Fitzsimmons. This work is being done behind closed doors and only a chosen few have been permitted to watch him. The champion will spend this evening and tomorrow quiet in his quarters. There is now no question as to the tactics that Jeff will employ tomorrow evening and his friends cannot see how he can possibly lose. "The champion will go right to his antagonist with the view of boring in and making the fatal punch, which he possesses beyond question, at an early stage of the fight. He believes that Corbett cannot hurt him and will waste into the ex-champion regardless of the blows he may deliver."

NEIL AND FORBES ANOTHER GAME IS AMATEURS PLAY AUTOMOBILES IN JEFFRIES IS THE TONIGHT. LOST. BASEBALL. A RACE. FAVORITE.

BOTH BOYS ARE READY FOR THEIR MEETING—THEIR MEASUREMENTS. RECRUITS SUCCUMB TO WHAL- EN'S BENDERS—ANGELS WIN AT SACRAMENTO. BAGGOTTS WILL PLAY MONARCHS NEXT SUNDAY—GAME AT NEWARK. RECORD BETWEEN OAKLAND AND DEL MONTE IS SHAT- TERED. OAKLAND SPORTS ARE OF THE OPINION HE WILL WIN.

All is in readiness for the Neil-Forbes battle, which is to be held in the Mechanics' Pavilion tonight. Both men are trained to the hour and ought to put up a fast contest. The bantams will battle for the championship of the world. Forbes has held the title for many years and Neil will make a supreme attempt tonight to wrest it from him. This will be their second meeting. Forbes has a victory over Neil to his credit and he is confident that he will repeat it tonight.

This afternoon both men met at Corbett's and weighed in. Under the articles of agreement they were scheduled to fight at 115 pounds. Neil weighed 114½ and Forbes 115 pounds. Neil will be seconded tonight by "Spider" Kelly, Tim McGrath, Frank McDonald and Harry Foley. In Forbes' corner will be Jack Herz, Charley Moran, Billy Otis and Jack Harley. The Californian has the advantage in having two such clever men as Kelly and McGrath to advise him during the battle. It is conceded that Kelly is the best ring general in the West and McGrath knows every move in the book.

Forbes is a trifle drawn in appearance. He shows by his condition that he has faithfully trained for the contest. Yesterday morning he was on the road and in the afternoon he did gymnasium work. He has had some trouble in taking off flesh. All visiting boxers seem to suffer the same inconvenience.

Neil, however, has had no trouble making the weight. He has been at Crockett's in the pink of condition. Yesterday afternoon Frankie went out on the road and took an eight-mile walk at a brisk pace. In the evening he attended a performance at a local theater.

The preliminary contests will be put on at 8:30 o'clock sharp. Danny Stillman and Fred Landers will go ten rounds and Jack Corbell and Jack Kane will go the same distance. The main event will be refereed by Eddy Gurney. "The Little Horsehoe" who will also officiate in the ring on the following night, when the heavy-weights battle for the championship.

The sale of seats for the Neil-Forbes contest was very heavy yesterday. The attendance will be large, as the men who will contest have large followings. The gallery doors will open at 7 o'clock and the doors leading to the lower portion of Mechanics' Pavilion will be opened a half hour later.

Following are the measurements:

Forbes—Height, 5'4"; chest, 34½"; waist, 27"; thigh, 17½"; calf, 13"; ankle, 8¼"; forearm, 10"; biceps, 13½"; wrist, 7¼"; neck, 15½"; reach, 66"; weight, 115.

Neil—Height, 5'4½"; chest, 34"; waist, 27½"; thigh, 20"; calf, 12½"; ankle, 8½"; forearm, 10"; biceps, 12½"; wrist, 7¼"; neck, 15½"; reach, 64½"; weight, 114½.

Yesterday's game between Los Angeles and Sacramento was a long tiring contest and exciting for the spectators. The Senators lost on account of a costly error by Baker, Fisher's recently acquired pitcher. The new twirler stopped a bunt, but made a wild throw to Graham, allowing the runner to score the winning run.

Portland lost to Seattle yesterday by hard luck. The game was a close one. The home nine made a number of costly errors in the field, but won out by heavy hitting. Both pitchers, in fact, were pretty hard. Neither was able to strike out more than one man.

Oakland seems glued to the bottom of the ladder. She started to go up a rung or two when the team was reorganized after the northern trip, but set down hard again yesterday at the hands of San Francisco.

The boys started off bravely enough. In the initial inning San Francisco went to bat first and got one run. Then Oakland got a mark on the blackboard by O'Hara's safe hit over short. He gained second base on Frank's bunt and got home on a single by Schwartz to center. Things looked hopeful enough, but the team did not get hardly a look-in during the remainder of the game.

San Francisco made another run in the fourth, four in the third, and one in the fourth. In the fifth Oakland managed to get two base hits. There was practically nothing doing thereafter until the last inning when Oakland got two runs. San Francisco fans claim their score would have been bigger if the team had not purposely let up when they saw they had a safe lead.

The Baggotts will cross bats with the Monarchs next Sunday afternoon at Freeman's Park at 2:30. The Baggotts have made an enviable record this season and "Jack" Lynch claims that he will come out of the game next Sunday with flying colors. He has the utmost confidence in his team. The Monarchs are a colored team, and put up a very high class article of ball. A warm game is expected.

Last Sunday the Baggotts played for B. Keen and carried out victorious by a score of 4-3. The Baggotts had the last inning and the score stood 3-2 in favor of the soldiers. Two men were on base and two runs were scored. The next batter hit the ball and two runs came in making the score 4-3 in the Baggotts' favor.

Last Sunday the Brooklyn were beaten by George Graham's clever Newark team by a score of 8-7. The Newark won the game in the third inning, scoring seven runs on a few hits coupled with many errors. The Brooklyn were treated to a royal manner both on and off the diamond. George Graham showed the team through the stove works, which the visitors found very interesting. "This is the largest save factory on the coast and gives employment to hundreds of men. The Newark boys are a very nice crowd of fellows and they have a team that will give any amateur team a good rub. The Newark were lucky to win, for they only scored in two innings, the second and the third. One run was scored in the second and the balance in the third, while the Brooklyn made their runs in a few different linings.

"Lefty" O'Brien, who pitched for the Brooklyn, and pitched a fairly good game. He also got a three bagger, the longest hit of the game. If the Brooklyn gave their pitcher proper support, "Lefty" would certainly have scored a slam out, as not one of the Newark's runs was earned. Manager Graham had a man from San Jose umpire the game, and his decisions were satisfactory to both sides. Hereafter any team that gets beat by Newark will have no claim coming in to lose a game to this fast Newark team on account of the umpire, because the umpire understands his business thoroughly. Manager Joe Croter of the Brooklyn says that he has never seen treated better by any team than he has by the Newark.

The automobile record from Del Monte to Oakland was lowered yesterday from 6 hours and 5 minutes to 5 hours and 50 minutes by L. T. Andrews and Robert Lennie in the Peerless, a 16 horsepower machine.

The start was made at 8:35 a. m. from the Hotel Del Monte. Salinas was reached in 53 minutes and San Jose in 4 hours and 10 minutes. The machine arrived at the corner of Twelfth and Broadway at 2:15 in the afternoon, in a rather dusty and dirty condition. The gentlemen claim they could have made the distance in much shorter time if they had not been obliged to run slowly through towns to avoid being arrested for speeding. The roads were so rough in some places that the machinery was jarred loose and had to be tightened up. One stop for repairs of this kind was of 25 minutes' duration.

J. Keenan and O. Luckhardt lost the race because they were arrested by the San Jose police. Mr. Keenan tells about the episode as follows:

"All went well until we reached Salinas. Here we found all the residents of the place out in the street. Flying through the town we could see that they were waving their hands to us, but we concluded that this was for the purpose of encouraging us, so we increased our speed. We encountered the same scene in Gilroy, Madrona and Morgan Hill, though in the last named places our suspicions were aroused that something was wrong, for several of the residents in their enthusiasm pointed revolvers and shotguns at us. On arriving at the outskirts of San Jose we were met by a posse of deputy sheriffs and placed under arrest. Every town along our line of travel had either telephoned or telegraphed the Sheriff at San Jose to stop us. No details were given in the different dispatches, so the Sheriff naturally concluded that we had committed some terrible crime and were escaping in an automobile. We were locked up in the San Jose jail for two hours before we were allowed to continue on our way. Naturally we lost the race."

Here are the opinions of some of the officials about the City Hall relative to the outcome of the Corbett-Jeffries fight tomorrow night.

Eugene Van Court, Police Court stenographer and who will be well in Jeffries' corner—Jeffries will win. There is not a chance on his face and his skin is like satin. He weighs about 220 pounds and never was in better condition.

Frank R. Thompson, City Clerk—There's nothing to it but Jeffries.

Edward Holland, Deputy City Clerk—Twelve rounds and then Jeffries will be declared the winner. Bet your pile on him.

Harry Newton, a Superintendent of Streets' office—I wish I had a few thousand to place on Jeffries. Corbett can box, but he will not be able to withstand the champion's bull-like rushes.

R. H. S. York, As-Superintendent of Schools—Jeffries will win, for Corbett can't hit him hard enough to lay him low. Fitzsimmons tried it, and failed and next to Jeffries, he's the hardest hitter in the business.

E. Frank Garrison—Corbett in twenty rounds. That's me.

George W. Nickerson—Jeffries will never hit Corbett. The big fellow is a loser.

M. McDonald—Put me down for Jeffries in nine rounds.

WILLIAM J. BAKER—I wish from me, Charles Page—Jeffries will win in an easy gait.

William M. Fitzmaurice—Jeffries all the way.

Edward Meek, License Inspector—Corbett has no license to win.

GEORGE E. GIBBS—Jim Jeffries will win in sixteen or seventeen rounds.

HENRY LONG—Corbett will go the limit in nine rounds.

THOMAS AGNEW—Corbett will win on points.

FRANCIS—I would like to see both of them knocked out.

CLEVELAND BAKER—Corbett looks to me like a cashed ticket.

WILLIAM J. BAKER—I think Corbett will win, but I would like to have another guess coming.

SID WILSON—Corbett has it nailed to the front, but it will take him twenty rounds.

W. A. J. FRANKIE—I may be wrong, but the go, I think will be a draw.

WILLIAM J. BAKER—Why there's nothing to it but Jeffries. He's got the belt nailed to the mast.

W. J. HENNESSY, Clerk of the Police Court—Jeffries will win easy. He will poke holes through Corbett.

GEORGE A. HANNORE, in Board of Public Works—Win, I didn't know they were going to fight.

TO INVESTIGATE ATTACK. NEW YORK, August 13.—The minister of Marine and Fisheries is without advice of the attack yesterday on an American fishing steamer by a Canadian revenue cutter, according to a Herald dispatch from Ottawa, Ontario. Captain Dunn, of the Petrol, had been asked by the minister to report at once on the matter.

GENERAL MILES' SON ARRESTED. NEW YORK, August 13.—For riding on the sidepaths without a license displayed on his bicycle, Sheridan, son of Lieutenant-General Nelson A. Miles, retired, has been arrested near East Hampton, L. I. Upon learning that he had just arrived from Washington and was unfamiliar with the laws the justice dismissed the case.

TORPEDO BOAT LADLY DAMAGED. NEW YORK, August 13.—An examination at the New York navy yard of the torpedo boat Leducar, which recently ran on Grindstone Neck off Bar Harbor, Maine, has revealed the fact that the boat, instead of merely sustaining damage to its propeller blades, had narrowly escaped being wrecked. The underbody had been scraped by the rock for almost its entire length. The paint had been taken off and in some places small indentations had been made in the bottom plates. Grindstone Neck is composed of many sharp pointed rocks and the boat's escape from serious damage was miraculous. It was found that the propeller shaft was also bent.

HEAVY DUTY ON LIQUORS. NEW YORK, August 13.—A large sum in duties already collected will be refunded under a decision just handed down by Judge Hazel, in the United States Circuit Court. The court affirms a decision of the Board of General Appraisers, who levied a duty of $175 a gallon, in place of $225 assessed by the collector of the port on several shipments of absinthe, arrack and other French cordials. An appeal may be taken to the higher courts, but the government already has been defeated twice in similar test cases.

BEHIND THE WICKET.

Local Lodges Are Planning Interesting Socials—Reports From Many Organizations.

Harbor Lodge, No. 253, I. O. O. F. held an overflow meeting Wednesday evening. Two candidates were initiated into the mysteries of O. F. Fellowship. The applicant was received from the lodge where he was initiated. The second degree will be "next" on Wednesday evening, August 10.

The "goat" has returned and visitors are cordially invited to come and see him.

EVENING STAR LODGE.

Tomorrow evening, August 14, Evening Star Lodge, No. 263, I. O. O. F., will hold its weekly session and also confer the initiatory degree when the Grand Master on this occasion will be present.

The several committees have everything in readiness for the reception of the Grand Master, and as this is his first official visit to Oakland, a large number of friends are expected to be present. Visiting brothers always welcome.

UNITED ARTISANS.

The members of Golden Gate Assembly, No. 62, United Artisans, passed a very pleasant evening on last Monday at their hall, Thirteenth and Clay streets. The Assembly is now making excellent progress both in the attendance of its members and in new additions; every meeting applications are read and new Artisans are initiated. The members are all greatly pleased with the manner and promptness in which the officers of the Supreme Assembly transact the business of the order.

The assembly had the misfortune of losing one of its oldest members last month, Sister Emily Ennis, and the secretary reported that in just three weeks' time her heirs had been paid the amount of her certificate, ($1000).

After the business of the evening had been transacted the hall was cleared, and the refreshment committee arranged tables and served the members with ice cream and cake in abundance.

WEST END LODGE, No. 175.

West End Lodge, No. 175, A. O. U. W., had a most interesting meeting on Tuesday evening, the 11th of this month, at Holtz Hall, 1542 Webster street, the occasion being the visit of the Past Master's Association of Alameda county. At the conclusion of the business of the lodge the master workman handed the gavel to P. D. Mayon, the president of the association, who called the meeting to order with a few appropriate remarks introducing the speaker of the evening, Brother Hirschberg, who made a spirited and eloquent address on the subject of explaining most thoroughly the new rates and showing the equity of the change and its necessity at this time. Brother Hirschberg was followed by Dr. E. R. Tait, the chairman of the Alameda County Extension Committee, who gave some outline of the work that this committee had in hand for the benefit of the members and the lodges in the county. The keynote of the speaker's address was loyalty to the order and he urged on the members the necessity of their co-operation in the plans of the Supreme Lodge, which were elaborate for the benefit of the membership at large.

Grand Recorder T. T. Spencer was also present and spoke on the exasperations and misconceptions of the members, many of whom thought they had paid into the order amounts of money largely in excess of the amount payable to their beneficiaries. He stated that they had contributed over $2000 during the twenty odd years the order had been doing business in California, whereas the records show that the order member in the order today, at an age of 70 years, had not yet paid in $600 in order that his heirs may draw out $2000.

A number of visitors from other lodges were present and a most enjoyable and profitable evening was spent by all.

OAK LEAF LODGE.

Oak Leaf Lodge, No. 35, A. O. U. W., of this order met in regular session on Monday evening at Fraternal Hall, Dr. E. R. Tait, master workman, in the chair. At the conclusion of the business of the evening the lodge closed the session and the members and their friends enjoyed card games until a late hour.

Monday evening, the 17th, will be devoted to a dance to be held under the joint auspices of Oak Leaf Lodge and the Lodge Degree of Honor. A good orchestra has been engaged and a large attendance is confidently expected. Admission will be charged at the door to gentlemen only. All members of the order and their friends are invited to be present.

bers of the order and their friends are invited to be present.

Grand Master Browning will be present with Oak Leaf Lodge on Monday, the 24th inst., when he will further explain the new rates of insurance in the order, about which there is still some confusion in the minds of the members in spite of the circular sent out by the Grand Lodge this week. Members are finding now on more deliberate consideration that the new plans of the Supreme Lodge are not nearly as irksome as they appeared at first sight, and the threats of wholesale desertions from the order are no longer heard.

The Alameda County Extension Committee will meet with Central Lodge on Monday evening, the 31st of this month, when a most extensive and interesting program will be submitted. The Grand Master and several of the grand officers have signified their intention to be present and add to the attractions of the evening. All members of the order are specially invited to be with Central Lodge, which meets at Masonic Hall, 1207 Seventh street, every Monday evening.

FOREST CIRCLE, No. 122.

Pride of the Forest Circle, No. 122 held an enjoyable meeting last Tuesday evening, which was presided over by Chief Companion Sister Stevenson. The summer vacation, which took many of our members out of town, being over with the attendance was largely augmented and it is expected that the circle will again resume its activity, having in mind the good times they have once a month. All ought to join the circle for they don't know what they are missing.

WOODMEN.

The regular meeting of Forest Camp, No. 102, W. O. W., was held last Monday evening. District Organizer Audette paid the camp a fraternal visit, and told of the work that was being done, which was very encouraging. Forest camp will give an entertainment and dance on August 20, and no doubt it will be a success. The entire degree team is on the committee and will have full charge. The talent will be all professional and the entertainments given by this camp are so popular and well patronized that there were 800 tickets sold at the last given. The camp has lately purchased beautiful new robes and uniforms for the "Joseph team" and will now perfect itself in the work, which, together with the regular team, will do all the initiatory work in good shape. Past Consul Commander Neighbor Hazeltine of Forest camp, who, with his family, has been spending a few weeks at Camp Meeker, has returned and all welcome to see him back in his accustomed place. Captain Bruce is taking great interest in the degree team, and a great deal of credit is due him for the progress that has been attained. The camp is now in the midst of silver set lined with gold, the utensils which will be used at the unrolling ceremonies.

SERVICE MEN.

At the next regular meeting of Camp Central Liscum, No. 15, S. M. S. W., to be held on August 23, the question of withdrawing from the national organization of the Service Men of the Spanish War and affiliating with the Spanish War Veterans will be debated. All comrades are requested to be present.

UNITED WORKMEN.

The regular weekly meeting of Pacific Lodge, No. 7, takes place this evening in Fraternal Hall, 1155 Washington street. There will be a meeting of the drill team also.

Last Thursday evening there was a meeting of the Alameda county extension committee held with this lodge, when by-laws were adopted and officers for the ensuing year were elected. The next meeting will take place with Central Lodge, No. 251, on Monday evening, August 31.

On Thursday evening, September 31, Grand Recorder Spencer will be at Pacific Lodge, No. 7, and talk on the proposed new rates.

John D. Holmes Jr., whose death took place this week, was an old member of the order, belonging to Brooklyn Lodge, No. 3, also of Ivy Lodge, No. 1, degree of honor.

The A. O. U. W. is not the only order that has found it necessary to adopt new rates, as least that those members have done so in the last three months and others have them under consideration.

As it is found, after years of experience the rates adopted and which, for a time, are adequate, are not sufficient to meet losses when the membership grows older. The steps taken by the orders were considered necessary to perpetuate the system and, if taken years ago, would have been better for all interested.

TRIBE OF BEN HUR.

Oakland Court, No. 6, Tribe of Ben Hur, held a very interesting meeting last Monday evening at Ben Hur Temple, 1060 Broadway. Eleven applications were received and accepted. Plans were discussed as to the best way of increasing membership. This court is having a phenomenal growth. Much interest is shown by officers and members. Membership is 237, with a class of twenty-five to initiate at the next regular meeting.

Monday evening, August 24, the court will hold an open meeting, inviting friends or any one who is interested or thinking of joining a fraternal order.

LADIES OF MACABEE.

Ladies of Macabees will give a whist tournament Friday evening, August 14, at Macabees Temple, corner of Eleventh and Clay streets.

YOUNG MEN'S INSTITUTE.

The nineteenth grand council of the Pacific Jurisdiction Y. M. I. will be convened in San Francisco Monday, August 17, 1903. The meetings of the grand council will be held at headquarters, 24 Fourth street, and the arrangements for

MISS COLLINS A BRIDE.

MRS. EDWIN WILLIAM EHREMAN, NEE COLLINS

Miss Charlotte Collins, daughter of Mrs. George H. Collins, of Vernon street, and Edwin William Ehrmann were married last evening at the bride's home by Rev. Charles R. Brown, of the First Congregational Church. The house was beautifully decorated, the prevailing colors being pink and green. Palms, ferns, oak and sweet peas were artistically distributed about the drawing room, where the ceremony was performed.

The bride wore a magnificent gown of richly embroidered chiffon over silk. The bodice was trimmed with a deep bertha of duchesse and polka lace, and a transparent yoke applied with medallions of duchesse lace. She wore a long tulle veil and carried a bouquet of bride's roses.

Her maid of honor, Miss Pauline Collins, was gowned in pale pink embroidered chiffon over silk finely shirred. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

There were about one hundred guests present, relatives and intimate friends, who congratulated the newly-wedded pair. A supper was served in small tables throughout the house, the bride's table being prettily decorated with pink carnations. Later the bride and groom left for their honeymoon, to be gone one month. They will return to Oakland for a brief visit before going to Oroville, where they will reside.

The reception and entertainment of the delegates will be in charge of the Board of Management of the San Francisco American Council, No. 8—John J. Burke, grand president; Thomas W. Significance of the Cough Left from Last Winter.

Prof. Adolph Hoff, of Vienna, Shows the Necessity of Curing a Cough Before It Becomes Permanent.

Latent Consumption and Its Portent Shown by Dr. Chas. R. Upson.

This is the most pleasant season of the year, when those who have noticed symptoms of consumption or who have feared the chronic cough may be lulled into inaction in the matter of checking the progress of the disease for a few weeks or months.

BUT THIS IS ALSO THE SEASON WHEN IT IS EASIEST TO TREAT THE DISEASE BECAUSE THERE IS NOW LESS DANGER FROM EXPOSURE.

It is the best season to gain time, for nature has brought the warm climate to your door.

THE TERRORS OF LATENT CONSUMPTION.

Dreadful enough when it is not in ambush, working its devastation without the knowledge of physician or sufferer, consumptive now adds this additional terror, which is discovered and touched for by means of a cough.

The latest development of the advanced fight physicians are waging on the disease is this latest startling fact:

THERE ARE ALMOST AS MANY PEOPLE SUFFERING FROM CONSUMPTION IN WHOM THE DISEASE IS UNSUSPECTED BY THEMSELVES AND THEIR PHYSICIANS AS THERE ARE PRONOUNCED CONSUMPTIVES.

It is now certain that persons are walking about the streets feeling unaccountably depressed, attributing their cough or debilitated condition to malaria or other diseases contracted at this season of the year, unconscious that they are victims of the dread disease.

"I would call attention to the following brief summary of ONE HUNDRED AND NINETY-SEVEN cases of patients who have consulted me for consumption, whom I found to be tuberculous, and yet none of whom suspected the presence of the disease. These cases were classified as follows:

DR. UPSON'S STARTLING INVESTIGATIONS.

Illustrative of the late discovery of unsuspected cases of pulmonary tuberculosis, the Medical Record, the recognized authority, in Volume 60, No. 3, page 94, prints the following by Charles R. Upson, M. D., of Waterbury, Conn.:

"It is my belief that FIFTY PER CENT OF OUR POPULATION are or have been infected with pulmonary tuberculosis. The disease is to a latent extent, and an early diagnosis is not only the great essential to its successful treatment, but it is of the utmost value in preventing the spread of the disease.

"I would call attention to the following brief summary of ONE HUNDRED AND NINETY-SEVEN cases of patients who have consulted me for consumption, whom I found to be tuberculous, and yet none of whom suspected the presence of the disease. These cases were classified as follows:

Students (including school children).....25	Professional men and women.....10
Persons of leisure.....15	Business and millmen.....10
Factory operatives and machinists.....10	Commercial travelers.....10
Clerks, bookkeepers and stenographers.....15	Housekeepers and servants.....15
Dressmakers.....5	Unclassified.....10

MANY CASES LABELLED "MALARIA."

"Although in quite a number of cases the patient had recently consulted a physician regarding certain persistent ill feelings, IN NO CASE HAD AN EXAMINATION OF THE LUNGS BEEN MADE. A considerable number of these cases had been labelled "malaria," that is to say, to term which is so often used by careless practitioners in hastily-made diagnoses."

There was no cough present to betray the undermining of the lungs, and in a great majority of cases the only surface indication of the presence of consumption was an exaggerated brilliancy of the eyes and pallor. It has been demonstrated that with the chronic cough or the chronic cold which does not give way to ordinary treatment there is more than the usual change that the cure is gained present. It is by no means rare to look for the cough. Frequently a continued running of the nose is a symptom which should not be overlooked. A cough must be regarded as only one of the most prominent symptoms, but not necessarily present. Loss of appetite may indicate the presence of consumption in its unsuspected form. A feeling of weakness after slight exertion is present in a majority of cases of latent consumption. Persistent or even slight rise in temperature without apparent cause is another symptom, often attributed to something else.

Have Courage to Recognize Consumption.

A patient goes to a doctor with a cough. After prescribing the usual remedies without favorable results—after perhaps mistaking the symptoms for those of malaria or stomach trouble—the physician concludes that the case is tuberculosis.

Does the modern physician dismiss his patient and tell him to go West? Or tell him that his case is hopeless and turn him out to die?

The doctor of today, abreast of the wonderful advancement in medicine does nothing of the sort. He puts his knowledge in practice and does the best he can to relieve existing symptoms. This is exactly what Professor Hoff's remedy does.

It decreases the cough, reduces the fever, increases the weight and vitality by improving the metabolism and in cases that are not too far advanced ultimately effects an absolute cure.

Physicians by the hundred are prescribing Professor Hoff's Cure for Consumption in all tuberculous cases, and it is by their hearty co-operation that much of the good is being accomplished by the American Bureau.

It is all important to recognize the presence of consumption at the earliest possible moment. A Medical Officer of the New York Health Department, in speaking of the immense good being done, says hundreds of deaths occur from the disease because physicians and friends of the sick have not the moral courage to say:

"THIS IS TUBERCULOSIS, AND NOW IS THE TIME TO TAKE PRECAUTIONS."

The American Bureau is daily in receipt of letters saying the Hoff Cure is worth its weight in gold. How can the work of a medicine that saves lives be computed?

PHYSICIANS CONVERTED BY PATIENTS.

In many instances physicians have been converted by their patients who have taken Professor Hoff's Cure and today thousands of the best American doctors regard Professor Hoff's cure as an efficient preparation to be used in all cases of cough and especially where there is doubt in diagnosis.

These physicians speak for themselves and their words of commendation need no explanation:

TWO CURES BY AN ARMY SURGEON

THE LATE WARDEN AULL.

Some ornate and versatile liar has been giving the New York Sun what the vulgar term "a flit" about Charles Aull, for twelve years' warden of Folsom prison, and the methods of that veteran prison manager. This imaginative writer represents the Warden as a vain-glorious, blood-thirsty sort of frontier humorist, whereas he was a singularly quiet, self-contained man, who did not boast but acted firmly and decisively. A sample of the Sun writer's capacity for blood curdling fiction is furnished in this description of the attempted break of 1893:

"George Sontag, the famous train robber, who was a life prisoner at Folsom at the time, was in the deal with the engineer, and he got into communication with one Fredericks, another famous train robber, who had recently been released from Folsom, and was hanging out in the woods several miles away, probably waiting to assist some of his friends to escape.

"Fredericks succeeded in placing twenty rifles and a lot of ammunition in the stone quarry excavation one night, and early the next morning the carefully planned revolt occurred. The engineer and Sontag led about twenty men to the quarry on the run.

"The rifles of the keepers and the tower Gatling guns brought down about three of the men before they dropped into the excavation and got their weapons, but once there it seemed as though they were all right and had an even chance in the battle that was to follow.

"Imagine the utter chagrin of these desperadoes when the whole side of the icehouse wall, facing the quarry excavation, suddenly dropped out, the nose of a Gatling gun was pointed down at them and a moment later was belching a steady fire of bullets into their ranks. It was one of the cruelest slaughters California ever saw, but old Aull realized that it was a necessary measure, and in the preservation of the system of Folsom he hesitated at nothing.

"Thirteen of those men were shot to pieces in that excavation and their bodies were buried in the little prison graveyard with inscriptions on their headstones telling how they met their deaths. The rest were nursed back to life and became red-shirt men."

There were just nine convicts in that attempted break. Three were killed and the other six severely wounded. In the shooting, a prisoner who had nothing to do with the conspiracy was shot through the body. There was no excavation, no falling out of the side of an icehouse, and the slaying of thirteen desperadoes. So the cruelest slaughter California ever saw never happened at all, save in the steam-heat imagination of some space writer. Charles Aull was a cool, brave, resourceful man, who was kindless itself when convicts behaved properly, but who was stern and severe in his punishments when they were intractable. Instead of seeking pretexts to have convicts shot, he exercised the greatest caution to prevent bloodshed—that is, he endeavored to make bloodshed unnecessary. It is a pity the "space fiend" of the New York Sun did not possess a sense of decency sufficiently strong to restrain him from depicting a courageous and gentlemanly official as a sanguinary ruffian.

It is reported that there will be a fight in the Senate against General Leonard Wood. The opposition will be inspired by political motives and personal grievances. Mills is winning about being snubbed on his retirement from the command of the army, and it will be just like him to intrigue against General Wood's confirmation. He dislikes Wood and he positively hates the President and General Corbin. He has been covertly creating trouble and promoting political intrigues ever since the opening of the Spanish war, and he particularly exerted himself to discredit the administration and the American troops in the Philippines. His friends will naturally join hands with the Democrats in the Senate to give the President a slap.

Bryan says the Democracy played a confidence game on the people in 1902. He ought to know, for he was one of the fellows who helped to turn the trick.

In St. Paul it was suggested that James J. Hill should not be required to pay his taxes because he had invested large sums in the city. Does this imply that people who have not invested large sums or who have not large sums to invest should alone be taxed? The idea that the investment of large sums should secure immunity is a new and in some respects, a novel one. He therefore it has been a universally accepted proposition that taxes should be levied on property and not on motives, and the argument that investment should be classed as a benevolence or eleemosynary is an apology for tax-shirking is a decided innovation. Who ever heard of a poor man being excused from paying his taxes on the ground that he had invested all his means in his cottage?

BIBLE READING IN STOCKTON.

Ephraim is not only joined to his idols, but he quotes scripture to justify his heresy and his refusal to hearken unto counsel. The editor of the Mail still insists that Stockton can be made a summer resort and that it has a climate that cherishes and invigorates the wayfarer, the golf girl and the Panama hatted young man with the tan shoes. "Who is this that dareneth counsel by words without knowledge?" because "he dwelleth in desolate cities, and in houses which no man inhabiteth?"

Our unregenerate friend of the Mail seems to desire a bill of particulars why Stockton is not an inviting resort for summer boarders. Let him ask the playful mosquito that makes musical the marshes roundabout, or the fiery sun that fills the air with blazing heat. We have no wish to bear testimony against a neighbor who has little enough to make him feel the joy of living. Nevertheless the Mail might take heed of the verse in Proverbs which says: "Whoso boasteth himself of a false gift is like the clouds and wind without rain." A boast of Stockton's summer climate is like clouds and wind without rain. Indeed, there are neither clouds, wind nor rain at Stockton in summer.

The Mail says "it is admitted that the climate of Stockton is not like that of Oakland or Santa Cruz." Thanks for the admission. It would have been grievous otherwise. We should not have alluded to the matter a second time at all but for the fact that the first comment of THE TRIBUNE appears to have induced the editor of the Mail to study the Bible. It is no small feat to induce a Stockton man to read the Bible, and our horn is correspondingly exalted.

Generally speaking, the Stocktonians are so unclimatic to heat that the punishment portrayed in the Good Book as the reward of the wicked has no terrors for them. But if they get to thinking that Stockton is a summer resort they may imagine there is some hotter place and come to repentance. If we can save the soul of the Mail editor we shall rejoice exceedingly at snatching a brand from the burning that is so well tempered to a future state in which harps, wings and golden crowns do not figure.

In wonders the Lord moves His works to perform, and if the Stocktonians can be brought into the paths of righteousness by believing their town is a desirable summer residence, then the vain imagining has a purpose of deep theological import. The sweet delusion may put away iniquity. We must confess, though, that it looks like cheating the devil's customers with the strap game. However, desperate diseases require desperate remedies. About the only way to get a Stockton man to enter into heaven is to make him believe he will be given a summer hotel.

Since the American troops evacuated Cuba our trade with the island has fallen off in a degree corresponding to the withdrawal of the demand created by our army. Now it is alleged that the falling off is due to the failure of the reciprocity treaty. The absurdity of this is shown by the fact that when our trade with Cuba was heaviest there was no reciprocity. The tariff relations remain practically as they were.

Those non-union socks seem to have caused Congressman Livernash to lose his feet in the political swim.

THE PROPOSED CONSOLIDATION.

The suggestion that the Merchants' Exchange and Board of Trade consolidation strikes us as being a good one. Both organizations are working to further the same ends, though they differ somewhat in character and are technically organized on a different basis. Still the primary object of both is to promote the growth, the trade, the industrial expansion and the general upbuilding of Oakland. Both are engaged in encouraging all forms of enterprises and all movements to attract investment and enlarge our transportation facilities. The two organizations have worked harmoniously together and in promoting various schemes of public advancement have been useful and mutually helpful. It really seems as if a consolidation can be effected on a basis that will allow the single organization to take upon itself all the work now performed by both. While both bodies are active and efficient, it seems to us that more can be accomplished by combining the energies and membership. One strong body is more powerful, generally speaking, than two weaker ones. There is a natural reluctance to an organization merging its identity into another, but, as we understand it, the proposition is not for one body to swallow the other up, but for both to come together and create a new body having in view the promotion of the objections sought heretofore by both. There may be more weighty objections to the scheme than any we have yet heard, but from the information at hand THE TRIBUNE is inclined to the view that the proposed consolidation will be a wise move.

THE LAW MANDATORY.

It is hardly worth while debating the effect the proposed annexation of Fruitvale will have on the revenues and expenditures of the city in view of the fact that the law is mandatory on the Council in regard to ordering an election at which the voters may pass upon the question of annexation. When a petition is presented that complies with the requirements of the law, asking the Council to submit a proposed annexation to the people, there is nothing left for the Council to do but comply with it—unless of course, the Council should refuse to obey the law. That is hardly a supposable case, however.

While the absorption of new territory may seem temporarily inexpedient from a fiscal standpoint, the objection is ephemeral in character, and is opposed to the future interests of the city. The outlying suburbs ought to be incorporated with Oakland as speedily as possible. Such annexations will hasten the creation of one great city on this side of the bay instead of half a dozen municipalities separated by artificial lines. Every far-seeing man in the community desires this consummation. The march of manifest destiny should not be obstructed for narrow or capricious reasons. At any rate, there is small use in objecting to the policy of what the law commands. In this matter, the plain duty of the Council is to call an annexation election as the law directs.

The Republican vote cast in the San Francisco primary came within a fraction of being as large as the combined Democratic and Union Labor vote. The inference to be drawn from this is that the Republicans will sweep the city at the regular election.

The automobile tournament at Monterey was a very tame affair. Nobody was killed.

Things New and Bright Are Coming Every Day

Already many fall novelties are being displayed that are usually not seen till much later. We would say—take advantage of the new things while they are novelties—before they get into the ranks of the common-places.

More Popular Oxford

have just been put on display. They are the more moderate-priced grade and are marked at 20c and 30c yard. These Oxford are in white with self-stripes and figures and also in white grounds with fancy colored stripes—remarkably good values for the money. A beautiful assortment of the higher grades of Oxford from 50c to $1.00 yard.

Cushion Novelties

Cushion tops are bought as much today for decorative purposes as for use. The designers recognize this, and the latest group of novelties is a series of twelve beautifully lithographed female heads. Among them are "Estelle," "Debutante," "Rosalia," "Flirt," "Portia," etc. Price.....50c

Couch Cover—A Leader

Brighten up that couch by draping it with an oriental striped cover. An excellent quality, fringed all round, 3 yards by 50 ins., specially priced at $1.65 at this hour is the swell ombre shaded ribbon. There are many widths and the colors and color combinations are the richest that ever left a loom.

A magnificent line of ombre ribbons, just in, is 5 1/2 inches wide, with broad Panna velvet edge. They come in two grades, 45c and 65c yard. Other widths from 20c yard.

Children's School Hose

Now is wanted the kind of hose that will last forever. We can't guarantee that kind, but we will say that the nearest to it is the famous "Hercules" hose.

Toes, heels and knees are woven double, and every thread of the strongest; wide or narrow ribs. Price.....15c and 25c pr

New Silkolines

These have come in a number of smaller patterns, making them very acceptable for dainty drapes, cushion covers, throwers, etc.—35 ins. wide.....10c and 12 1/2c yd

TERRIFIC STORM POPE DRIVES AND WALKS IN MISSOURI.

BRIDGES AND TRACKS ARE BADLY DAMAGED BY RAIN.

SEVERAL MILLIONS OF FRANCS FOUND IN LEO'S APARTMENTS.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., August 13.—A terrific rainstorm, that at some points assumed the proportions of a cloudburst, prevailed in Western Missouri and in Eastern and Central Kansas last night. All streams were rapidly rising, and were washed out and one or two bridges damaged.

At Junction City, Kans., the Smoky Hill river rose ten feet in six hours, and early today was still rising at the rate of two feet an hour. Reports from up the river say the rise will not continue long, however, as the water is running off fast.

Nearly four inches of water fell in Central Kansas. Between Junction City and Chapman the Union Pacific tracks are under water and on the Union Pacific branch north of Junction City one bridge was washed out of position.

NAVAL MAGAZINE REMOVED.

CHELSEA, Mass., August 13.—Arrangements are being completed for the removal of the naval magazine here which is in a dangerous proximity to a thickly populated district and shipping to a point within easy reach of the Charlestown Navy yard, which has been announced. It will supply both the Charlestown and the Portsmouth yards, and accommodate 1000 tons of explosives. At least a square mile of coast land is a square mile of water front will be seized for the purpose, under condemnation proceedings. A site had previously been selected on Cape Cod, but the owner demanded $3,000,000, with less than $50,000 when he learned the purpose for which it was wanted.

PACKING HOUSES ENLARGE.

CHICAGO, August 13.—The Inter-Ocean today says: Following the announcement that Nelson Morris and Company will erect a $2,500,000 packing plant in Kansas City, Missouri, comes the statement that Armour & Co. contemplate the erection of a plant at St. Joseph, Mo., to cost approximately $1,000,000. Plans are now in course of preparation for the construction of department of Armour & Co. at the Chicago stockyards. It is thought that the independent movements of the big Chicago packers in the Missouri cities are due to the anti-trust policy of the Missouri authorities.

ROME, August 13.—The Pope is quite well today. He took a long drive and walk in the Vatican gardens and then received the Austrian Ambassador, who presented his credentials.

Monsignor Callegari, the major domo, accompanied by Cardinals Rampolla and Mennucci, opened the apartment of Pope Len this morning, breaking the seals put on at the time of the Pontiff's death.

They found a considerable amount of money—it is stated several millions of francs—hidden in various places.

FLOODS IN NEW MEXICO.

SILVER CITY, N. M., August 13.—Heavy rains during the past two days caused floods that have almost inundated this town. A wall of water seven feet high rushed through the residence portion of the town, flooding homes and stores and ruining their contents. In the streets debris is piled to a depth of several feet. The new dam is partially wrecked. Dozens of families are homeless and destitute. It is conservatively estimated that the loss will reach $100,000.

MORE AID FOR KISCHINEFF.

NEW YORK, August 13.—The American Kischineff relief committee has received from the committee at Kischineff which had charge of the situation, a statement of receipts and expenditures and an appeal for further aid.

CRUSHED BY FALLING.

NEW YORK, August 13.—Four miners engaged in placing timbers in a zinc mine at Franklin Furnace, N. J., have been crushed to death by a rock weighing at least fifteen tons. They were crushed beyond recognition. Two of the men were foreigners, whose names are not known. Another two were Americans, named Willis and Stevens.

GOES THROUGH A BRIDGE.

ENGINEER ESCAPES BUT FIRE-MAN KILLED IN WRECK.

TOPEKA, Kas., August 13.—The engine, mail and baggage car of the Texas Express on the Rock Island, which leaves Topeka at midnight, went through a bridge at Hendricks Creek, near Alma at 1:30 this morning, killing John L. Eggett, fireman, of McFarland, Kansas, and seriously injuring Engineer John McGeehan of Kansas City. The baggage car and express messenger's car jumped when the shock came and were swept by the waters into the tree tops from whence they were rescued at daylight by William Graves, a fisherman. Graves also found the engineer unconscious and entangled in the limbs of a tree.

WILL PICNIC ON LABOR DAY.

COUTING OF PARISH OF ST. ANTHONY IN BEAUTIFUL IDORA PARK.

Interest in the picnic and re-union to be given by St. Anthony's parish on Labor Day, September 1th, is increasing, not only in the parish but throughout this city and San Francisco.

Thousands of members of the Gaelic League and Irish dancing classes will be in attendance, and many will assist in the entertainment, sports and games, which will be held on the afternoon of that day.

The famous Irish dancers, O'Connor, Kelleher and O'Connell, with their own special selected Irish musicians will be there to entertain. One of the features of the afternoon will be an appropriate Labor Day address by Rev. P. C. York.

It is eminently fitting that Labor Day should be selected by the people of St. Anthony's parish as a day of celebration. The attitude of the pastor, Rev. P. C. York, towards the working classes is well known. Whenever labor unions were in trouble, when it became necessary for the laboring man to resist the unjust attitude of the employer, Father York was ever ready with voice and pen to demand justice for the sons of toil, and nearly every union on both sides of the day has at one time or another extended him letters and votes of thanks for his interest in their behalf.

The proceeds of the picnic will be used to defray the expenses of the Brothers' School of the parish, which is now being enlarged and improved at a cost of over $10,000. The parishioners are determined to have good schools and have them free from debt in a short time.

Idora Park has been selected as the best place for holding this parish re-union, and a visit there is necessary in order to appreciate its beauties and attractions. A meeting of the young ladies of the parish will be held in St. Anthony's Hall this evening, and on Tuesday evening next the Catholic Ladies' Aid Society will meet, the object being to assist the general committee in the success of the picnic.

SLAVS FIGHT IN INDIANA.

CHICAGO, August 13.—More than a score of men have been arrested for inflicting severe injuries on at least half a dozen men in a fierce fight at Whiting, Ind. The trouble was an outgrowth of a factional quarrel between members of the Slavic races, laborers for the Standard Oil Company. Warrants for fourteen others will be served today.

The riot was the culmination of a series of battles in several of which serious injuries were sustained. The police cannot learn the cause of the quarrel. They understand it originated in Europe, and that the Slavs are fighting for a principle.

On one side are Servians, Hungarians and Croatians. On the other are those designated only by the Generic name.

Following several battles in saloons and at picnics, a party of Slavs and another of the allied races met yesterday in Schrag avenue, a street dividing the settlements. Scores engaged in battle and hundreds watched the fight. The police made a dash and arrested a number of the Serbian faction were arrested later on warrants.

BERKELEY AND THE STATE UNIVERSITY

WORK STARTED OF BUILDING NEW CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

Edifice Will Be Built on Bancroft and Telegraph and Will Cost Over $40,000.

BERKELEY, August 12.—With the excavation of the large building site at the northwest corner of Bancroft way and Telegraph avenue has commenced the erection of the new edifice for the Christian Church of Berkeley as well as the college building for the Berkeley Bible Seminary. What, with the use of stone and the employment of the most modern architectural ideas and the expenditure of between $40,000 and $50,000, will come the construction of what promises to be two of the college town's finest structures.

Although the graders are at work preparing the foundations of the buildings, the building committees of the church and seminary have not fully decided upon the details regarding the erections of the buildings. A series of plans have been prepared by Architect Matthews of Oakland and it is from these drawings that the committees is now bent upon making a selection.

The Christian Church has grown to rapidly since the present quarters were taken in Stiles Hall several years ago that a new place of worship has been needed for some time. Especially has the congregations grown since the acceptance of a call last year by Rev. E. W. Darr, who was one of the leading ministers of the Christian denomination in Chicago.

With the advancement of the church came the decision of the Trustees of the seminary to move the religious institution to this city, where the advantages offered by the State University might be enjoyed by its students.

The work of collecting funds for the new edifice has progressed satisfactorily until enough money has been gathered to take up the task of building.

Through the placing of over seas on a sloping floor and on a gallery running about the sides of the main auditorium, accommodations for more than 1000 worshippers will be provided. Separate rooms will also be built for the Sunday School and pastor's study.

Classrooms, a lecture hall and administrative offices will occupy the principal space in the seminary building, which will consist of two stories. No date has been set as yet for the laying of the cornerstone of the buildings, which ceremonies will be jointly conducted.

ONE DELIVERY POSSIBLE.

RESIDENTS OF BERKELEY FORCED TO CALL AT POSTOFFICE FOR MAIL.

BERKELEY, August 12.—So limited is the force of carriers in the local postoffice, that but one delivery a day is made in the more remote sections of the city. Finding it impossible to cover the outlying districts the customary number of times each day, Postmaster Schmidt has issued an announcement to the effect that the residents in these places may receive their mail by calling at the postoffice between four and five o'clock in the afternoon.

A concerted effort is now being made by Congressman Metcalf and Postmaster Schmidt to relieve the conditions, which are proving a source of annoyance to a large number of residents, by securing the appointment of additional carriers.

BERKELEY HOUSE-MOVER FOUND GUILTY BY JURY.

BERKELEY, August 12.—William P. Grant was found guilty yesterday in Judge Edgar's court of breaking the town ordinance which provides for the service of legal notices on a telephone company before having its wires in order to permit the passage of a house. Certain testimony the defendant desired to present was ruled out by the court. Grant will appeal the case.

MRS. W. A. SCHROCK ENTERTAINS.

MRS. W. A. SCHROCK.

WEST OAKLAND, August 12.—Mrs. W. A. Schrock has been entertaining her brother, Dr. H. F. Hammer of New York, for the last two weeks. During his visit here he was the guest at several pleasant affairs. He returned to New York Tuesday. The night previous Mrs. Schrock gave a card party in his honor. HE PLANNED TO ROB THE WARDEN'S HOME.

Ex-Convict Enters Home of Amos Huggins, While Seeking That of Warden Aguirre.

BERKELEY, August 12.—Town Marshal Kerns, who has just returned to Amos Huggins of 2228 Channing way the loot that was taken from his premises by Herbert Barnes, the "day-light" burglar, declares that when he took the thief to San Francisco for the purpose of collecting the stolen articles that had been distributed among the various pawnshops, the burglar confessed to him that when he made his trip to Berkeley it was for the purpose of robbing the home of Warden Aguirre of San Quentin. But Barnes, he confessed to the officer, made a mistake in his calculations and entered the Huggins' residence.

The thief was an ex-convict and during the serving of a previous sentence at San Quentin took a dislike to the Warden which became so strong that he resolved to rob his house as soon as his term expired.

As soon as the robbery of the Huggins place was reported, Marshal Kerns sent a list of the missing articles to Chief of the Police Hodgkins of Oakland. Upon the apprehension of the officers, furnishing them with a list of the goods that he had stolen as well as describing to the best of his ability, the shops in San Francisco where he had pawned them. Chief Hodgkins at once detected a similarity in the lists furnished him by Marshal Kerns and the felon and the investigation which resulted in the restoration of the stolen property.

Among the valuables returned to the Huggins family was a diamond cross-eared pin, a diamond and opal ring and gold sleeve buttons and stick pins.

EPWORTH LEAGUES PLAN ENTERTAINMENT IN BERKELEY.

BERKELEY, August 12.—What promises to be one of the most pleasing social events of the summer season will be given by the Epworth League of the West Berkeley Methodist Episcopal Church at Taylor Hall, corner of University avenue and Fifth street, this evening.

The principal entertainment of the evening will consist in the rendition of the following program, which will be interspersed with the serving of light refreshments:

Piano solo—Miss Marie Pantonehl; recitation, Lester Wilson; vocal solo, Miss Lottie Pool; mandolin selection, Stewart Wilson; comic duet, Barnabas Sisk; recitation, "Baby" Miller; vocal solo, Miss Clara Taylor; vocal duet, Mrs. A. H. Miller and Miss Matilda Martin; vocal solo, Ben Pool; vocal solo, Miss Bertha Butdoff.

As the difference of opinion that has successively defeated the agitation for the opening of Walnut street, from Heistr avenue to University avenue, has sprung up again with renewed vigor. Believing that if the thoroughfare is opened between the two avenues that their quiet street will be turned into a commercial thoroughfare, the residents who would be affected by the assessment which would have to be levied for the carrying out of the improvement scheme, have signed a vigorous protest which has been placed in the hands of the Town Clerk.

"Do you ever have your own way?" asked the cynical near relative.

"Yes," answered Mr. Meekton. "Sometimes I have my own way; but not without consulting Henrietta before I make up my mind."—Washington Star.

PROTEST AGAINST OPENING.

RESIDENTS OF WALNUT STREET SEND FORMAL PETITION TO TOWN CLERK.

BERKELEY, August 12.—The same difference of opinion that has successively defeated the agitation for the opening of Walnut street, from Heistr avenue to University avenue, has sprung up again with renewed vigor. Believing that if the thoroughfare is opened between the two avenues that their quiet street will be turned into a commercial thoroughfare, the residents who would be affected by the assessment which would have to be levied for the carrying out of the improvement scheme, have signed a vigorous protest which has been placed in the hands of the Town Clerk.

HAYWARDS, SAN LEANDRO, EMERYVILLE, FRUITVALE, GOLDEN GATE

MEN WORK HARD FOR WAGES.

JUDSON STRIKERS AT EMERYVILLE CLAIM THEY ARE NOT PAID WELL.

EMERYVILLE, August 12.—Because of the completion of the subway and the strike at Judson's things are very quiet in this vicinity at present. At the Judson Works there is no change of front on either side. Very few of the strikers reside here, and it is difficult to get a statement from either side as to its intentions.

Relative to the assertion made that the Judson Company is paying some of its men $8 and $10 a day, the following facts are interesting. In the first place, the strikers say there are only about a dozen men earning these wages out of the 150 employed. They are required to labor very hard, and in the words of one of them, "they earn every cent of the money."

Furthermore, it seems that in the East men are paid for the same work from twelve to fifteen dollars. In view of this and the fact that the average wages paid only amount to between $3 and $5 per day, the Union men claim they have good grounds to declare a strike.

WILL OPEN OFFICE HERE.

W. S. Latimer, superintendent of the Eureka Laundry of Oakland, will establish a general office for the company in Emeryville soon. His company is quick to see and appreciate the growing trade advantages in this section. He will occupy Judge Coburn's new store.

TOURIST HOTEL TALKED OF.

RESIDENTS OF HAYWARDS THINK THEY OUGHT TO HAVE ONE.

HAYWARDS, August 12.—A number of wealthy and influential citizens have at length been agitating the proposition of a fine tourist hotel for Haywards. The town is an ideal place to spend a few weeks or months. The Monday and Friday excursionists always speak most favorably of the town and wonder why there is no large hotel here.

President Hunt and J. H. Bumgartner are enthusiastic about the matter and agree to start the ball rolling by subscribing $5000 toward the erection of a big tourist hotel. "We stand ready to back it up, and want to see a dozen other gentlemen come forward," said Mr. Hunt, "and put up $5,000, and get this enterprise started. Haywards needs it badly."

Mr. Bumgartner spoke in the same strain. He said: "Yes, we are willing to put $5,000 into this hotel project, and join with a dozen other capitalists in taking right hold of the matter. There is no doubt in my mind but that a new tourist hotel would be a paying investment here. San Francisco and Oakland alone would liberally patronize it, and it would be crowded with business men and their families the year round, not to mention the Eastern tourists who flock this way."

"No spot in California offers more inducements for health seekers for tourists as Haywards. It has a climate that is the finest in the world and the surroundings are beautiful, the drives being unexcelled. We would do all in our power to induce our friends to come here, and also advertise the new hotel through our business acquaintance both here and abroad."

NATIVE DAUGHTERS ENTERTAIN SONS.

The local party of "Native Daughters of the Golden West" were "at home" last evening to the members of Eden Parlor, Native Sons. An enjoyable evening was spent in dancing and other amusements. Light refreshments were served. Last Saturday night the members of Eden Parlor attended a smoker given in Alameda by Halsey Parlor of the Encinal city.

No further action has been taken in regard to the resignation of Dr. George Lyons by the members of the Presbyterian church. The subscription committee was not ready to report last Sunday. It was allowed another week to gather funds to be added to the minister's salary, so he could be persuaded to remain. The reverend gentleman is ill this week at his home here.

FREE DELIVERY INITIATION AND BANQUET.

RESIDENTS OF FRUITVALE THINK THEY ARE ENTITLED TO IT.

FRUITVALE, August 12.—Residents of this vicinity are discussing the advisability of petitioning the postoffice officials at Washington for free delivery. There are now three rural delivery routes between Oakland and Haywards, one at Elmhurst, one at San Leandro and another at Fruitvale. Almost all the territory in Brooklyn and Elmhurst townships except Fruitvale is covered. These people living in this district believe they ought to be entitled to the same privilege as their neighbors. There is now a private delivery from the local postoffice which costs the subscribers twenty-five cents a month, but of course does not reach all the homes in Fruitvale.

Rural free delivery could probably be secured in case Fruitvale remains unincorporated. In case it is incorporated into a town, free delivery cannot be secured unless the postoffice receipts are greatly increased. To this end Postmaster George E. Lund has posted in the local postoffice divers placards showing the advantages of the United States mails, the money order and registry departments. One of the signs bears the words: "Buy stamps and money orders at your home office, and put it in line for free delivery." Mr. Lund believes that if all Fruitvale residents would do their postal business in the local office, the receipts would increase sufficiently to warrant the postoffice department in establishing free delivery in the new town of Fruitvale.

"ALL FOR A SENSATION."

The above-named phrase is to be given in upper Fruitvale Hall this evening for the benefit of the upper Fruitvale volunteer fire department. The piece is in one act and is from the pen of Felix Dale. In the cast are five characters, two women and three men. The play will be preceded by a musical program consisting of vocal solos, a mixed quartet, and instrumental numbers by the California Mandolin orchestra. The entertainment will close with an informal dance. The entire affair was arranged by Mrs. Max Nickhaus.

M. B. Templeton has removed to Fruitvale from Haywards.

NEARLY COST HIM HIS LIFE.

SMALL BOY AT GOLDEN GATE INJURED ON HAND CAR.

GOLDEN GATE, August 12.—While indulging in boyish fun with a hand car on the Santa Fe tracks on Lowell street Tuesday evening, little Sumner Cahill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Cahill, of Fifty-sixth street, met with an accident which nearly cost him his life.

It seems that in company with several playmates young Cahill was operating a hand car heavily loaded with rails. In attempting to stop the machine, while going down a small grade, the boy's right foot was caught in the gear and he was thrown on the track, and his leg very nearly cut off by the heavy wheels.

He was assisted by his companions to Dr. J. B. Wood's office, where the doctor took him at once to East Bay Sanitarium. The boy's wounds were so severe that Dr. Wood found it necessary to amputate his right leg below the knee.

He is doing very well now, but for some time will be obliged to remain at the hospital.

NEGRO DEFRAUDS COUNTRYMEN.

ATLANTA, Ga., August 12.—Thousands of dollars have been secured from the blacks of this section of Georgia and also of Florida by a negro named Mitchell, who claimed that he had been employed by Senator Mark Hanna to collect money to be used in passing the Ohio Senator's bill to pension the ex-slaves in the South.

The negroes, tempted by the prospects of a pension gave readily to Mitchell, some of them turning over the earnings of years. Last week Mitchell left, saying he was going to see Mr. Hanna. One negro, J. B. Wilson, who had given $50, grew suspicious and wrote Senator Hanna. Wilson has received a letter from the Senator denouncing Mitchell as a fraud and warning the negroes not to trust him. It is estimated that Mitchell secured $6000 during his campaign of duplicity.

WOMAN IN BLACK NOT UNIONS MEET AND DISCUSS PLANS FOR FUTURE. AT WEDDING.

MRS. LUTHER D. MAHONE.

The wedding of Rev. Luther D. Mahone, pastor of the Thirty-fourth Street Methodist Church, and Miss Adelle Wentworth took place last evening in the Twenty-third Avenue Baptist Church, notwithstanding the threats of a woman in black, who has repeatedly written anonymous letters to the young couple, to the effect that the wedding would never take place. Several members of the Oakland police force, as well as a number of the soldier friends of the groom, witnessed the ceremony in order to be on hand if any violence was attempted.

Shortly after the announcement of Mr. Mahone's engagement to Miss Wentworth, the young lady received an anonymous letter, stating the wedding should never take place. Rev. Mahone later received a similar one. One day, while Miss Wentworth was walking along Market street in San Francisco, a young woman, dressed in black, approached her, demanding that she break her engagement with Rev. Mahone, swearing that if she did not, she, the woman in black, would prevent the marriage. Miss Wentworth could give but a poor description of the woman and Rev. Mahone declares that the identity of the woman is unknown to him, as he never, to his knowledge, saw her in his life.

Rev. Mahone told the story to the police and was informed that other betrothed couples had received threats of the same nature.

However, the "woman in black" did not make her appearance last evening at the wedding and all went along smoothly. Bishop J. W. Hamilton, of the Methodist Church, performed the ceremony. The bride was attended by Miss Louise Riley, Miss Corinne Ingram and Miss Hazel Baker acted as maid of honor. Professor J. C. Bennett of San Jose was best man. The ushers were P. B. Mitchell, F. C. Hawkins, George S. Powers and J. T. Thompson, all soldier comrades of Mr. Mahone.

After the ceremony a reception and wedding supper was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. K. Wentworth, 1312 Twenty-sixth avenue. Previous to their departure for an extended trip throughout the East, Rev. and Mrs. Mahone will attend the Methodist Conference at Pacific Grove.

Laborers Object to Non-Union Men Coming Here—Railroad Men Will Turn Out in the Parade.

The longshore lumbermen were in regular session at 453 Eighth street last night with a good attendance. They transacted routine business. One new member was initiated.

LABORERS. There was, as is customary, a large meeting at the laborer's meeting at the docks and waiters' headquarters. Six new members were admitted by initiation. Messrs. Robb and Perry visited the body and addressed it upon labor union topics. Mr. Oberlies of the newsboys' union dropped in and spoke of the strength of the organization he represented and asked that members of the laborers aid the boys by calling for carriers from carriers and patronizing only those who have them.

It was reported that a certain contracting firm in this city was engaging help at various employment offices in San Francisco, bringing the help over to compete with men living here, working the men a short time and then discharging, thus keeping many out of work who live here, while not allowing the new-comers to remain long enough to be unionized. The practice and the firm were vigorously condemned and the matter will be laid before the Federated Trades tonight.

TEAMSTERS. All locals were represented last night at the District Council of Teamsters, but the Bakery Drivers' Local No. 10 was not. Applications were acted on and referred to the respective locals. Parade matters occupied considerable time. The Ice and Soda Water Drivers will have a float. The Retail Drivers will not parade as a union, but will help in the parade. The Local No. 70. No advertising teams are to be allowed in the line and the limit will be one float for each division. Delegate Warner was instructed to ask the joint committee on Labor Day to direct that none but union drivers be allowed in the parade. Tuesday night the District Council will visit Local No. 614 in a body.

SHEET METAL WORKERS. Third Vice President, Charles S. Penn of the International organization was a visitor last night at the meeting of the Sheet Metal Workers and addressed on trade conditions and union topics was listened to with interest. The different bodies heretofore existing, with interests that necessarily conflicted because of the separation, have all been united into the International Alliance of Sheet Metal Workers and are working harmoniously together. But two strikes exist, one in Chicago and another in San Francisco. The local union is helping swell the numbers of the big parade in uniform, and will also have a float in the line. Five dollars was voted for the Randsbury miners.

NEWSBOYS. This union gathered at Becker's Hall and initiated and received applications for membership from eight others. Hereafter the meetings will be held on Friday nights. W. Jacobs, W. Grunsing, Thomas Kipe, E. Whorf and F. Davis were appointed a committee on Labor Day. Friday night's meeting will decide if the boys will continue to handle the Call.

CARPENTER'S NO. 34. The members broke the record last night by an early adjournment, and have not recovered from their surprise over it. Purely routine business was transacted. Wednesday, August 13, a special meeting is to be held for the purpose of voting on the question of parading on Labor Day and deciding whether or not the union will become directly affiliated with the Building Trades Council.

WILL BE IMMENSE. The joint committee on Labor Day parade have been waiting on by committees from the West Oakland yard and advised that the men in the railroad shops will all join in the demonstration on Labor Day. The committee is now assured that the parade will be the largest ever held in Oakland, no matter what the inciting occasion was. It estimates from reliable sources that over 8000 marchers will be in the line.

PLUMBERS. Everybody was present last night, almost, at an enthusiastic meeting of the Plumbers' Local at Kottke & Chase Hall. The union will parade, of course, and has appointed W. Sullivan, J. Scott and J. Francis to be after a suitable uniform. Five dollars' fine to be assessed against all who do not show themselves in line on Labor Day unless they can absence. Four new members were admitted. The linemen were made the recipients of a $20 donation. New shop stewards were appointed and several other routine matters attended to. The union received telegraphic advice of the death at Port Townsend, Wash., of John Liddane, one of its members, who had been sent up there on a job about ten days ago by Dalziel & Moller, and $100 was voted and telegraphed forward to cover his funeral expenses, which act is made the more commendable because of the fact that Liddane's membership had not been wholly completed. Deceased came to Oakland from California and had formerly resided at 2040 Howard street, San Francisco. He was a comparative stranger here, and nothing is known as to the whereabouts of his relatives.

BRICKLAYERS. The members of this union will be found in line on Labor Day and have appointed the following committee to look after parade details: W. B. Barrows, Webb, J. Pary, A. Hughes, A. Roland. $25 was voted the linemen. A special meeting was set for two weeks from last night, which all members are expected to attend.

LINEMEN. Agreeable to resolution of the Board of Supervisors of San Francisco a conference was held yesterday afternoon at Mayor Schmitt's office. There were present: Mayor Schmitt, who presided; Supervisors Hughery, Rea and Brauhart; Alexander Pollock representing the San Francisco Gas and Electric Company; A. M. Hunt, of the Independent Light and Power Co.; L. Randolph and W. Frank Pierce, also representing the various lighting corporations; L. C. Edwards, president, and F. A. Holden, secretary, of the Western International Brotherhood of Electric Workers; A. L. Worthington and M. J. Sullivan, officers of Linemen's Union, No. 61. W. E. Howe, chief of the department of electricity, was also present. A general discussion took place as to the means to bring about a settlement of the differences between the linemen and the Pacific States Telephone and Telegraph Company. The possibility of the other unions closely allied with the electrical workers being called out on a sympathetic strike if the officials of the telephone company persist in their policy of refusing to discuss the matter was discussed. The possibility of the linemen, was also considered. Mayor Schmitt expressed a hope that the officers of the telephone company would consider the desirability of meeting the representatives of the union and having a friendly discussion of the trouble and on what basis a settlement could be reached. It was finally decided that the best plan would be to hold another meeting at the Mayor's office tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock, to which J. M. L. Sablin, president of the Pacific States Telephone and Telegraph Company, will be invited. Mr. Sablin will be informed that the conference will expect him to state his feelings regarding a settlement of the existing differences.

FISHERMEN. A big strike has been declared on the river and bay from Sacramento to the Two Brothers, including the San Joaquin river, by the Fishermen's Union. This action was taken in consequence of an order by the Fish and Game Commission to their buyers directing them not to pay more than 2 cents a pound for fish. The rate has heretofore been 4 cents. About 1800 men are affected.

WHERE IS THE MONEY? In the suit being tried at Newark, N. J., to show cause why a receiver should not be appointed for the Universal Tobacco Company, the complainants charged that President Butler of the company forced out responsible men among the directors and substituted others who would obey his behests, and that $700,000 had disappeared and the company was $1,500,000 in debt. He asserted that the common stock issued amounted to but $3,000,000, instead of $1,000,000, as alleged by the company's officials.

NEW CHIEF. Warren Sanford St. e. just elected to fill the unexpired term of Grand Chief Engineer of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers made account by the record book of the union. He was born in Iowa, in which State he was born February, 1880. He has been railroaded twenty-four years on the Missouri division of the Western Union Telegraph Company, and has been chairman of the General Board of Adjustment of that road for many years. He will hold office until the general convention in Los Angeles next year.

MUST BE AVOID. Upon application of the attorneys for the Western Federation of Miners, forty-seven members of the Idaho Springs Citizen's Protective League were placed under bonds yesterday to keep the peace and notified to hold themselves in readiness to appear before Judge Owens on Monday next. The league was issued as a result of the expulsions from town of a number of union miners after the blowing up of the buildings of the Sun and Moon mine recent.

CHALLENGE TO DEBATE. President Gompers of the American Federation of Labor has challenged D. M. Farry, president of the National Manufacturers' Association, to debate the question of unionism with him at the coming Labor Day celebration at Indianapolis, Ind.

FATAL TO MINERS. The government commission investigating the "tropical work disease" affecting mine operatives in Germany has been unsuccessful in finding a remedy that will check its progress, and it is spreading into districts heretofore exempt. Only those miners who rarely see the sunlight are affected and the disease is fatal.

PERMANENT INJUNCTION. Judge H. N. Blake of Butte, Mont., has recommended to the Federal Court that a permanent injunction be granted to the Western Union Telegraph Company against the American labor Union and other labor unions of Butte to restrain labor organizations from interfering with the company's business because it has been declared a vital by a strike of messenger boys.

DEATH OF A NURSE.

Viola Magee, a nurse, was found dead at 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon in a room at the residence of Charles W. Wilkins, a contractor, at 149 Twelfth street. The nurse had been attending Mrs. Wilkins, who is an invalid, and it is believed that she died of a heart attack. Dr. L. R. Webster was immediately summoned, but as his services were not needed, he reported the case to Deputy Coroner Quellan, stating that the indications pointed to alcoholism or to opium poisoning. There were no evidences of suicide. The deceased resided at 953 Clay street. She was 4 years old and a native of Canada. The body was taken to the Morgue.

NEWSBOYS PASS RESOLUTIONS.

THEY CENSURE THE POST AND BULLETIN FOR PUBLISHED STATEMENTS.

San Francisco, Cal., August 12.

EDITOR TRIBUNE:—The Newsboys held a meeting tonight at their hall, No. 117 Larkin street which was well attended. Several new members joined.

The following resolution was passed: "Resolved, That the San Francisco Newsboys' Union condemn Mr. Thomas Garrett, president of the Evening 'Post' for his cowardly attack and lying statements printed in the 'Post' of August 11 and 12 in reference to our treasurer, Leon De Bernardi.

"Resolved, That the Newsboys' Union give their heartfelt thanks to their loyal treasurer for his many and in conducting the boycott against the 'Post' and 'Bulletin'.

"Resolved, That we, the Newsboys' Union of San Francisco, denounce the 'Post' and 'Bulletin' in the Oakland TRIBUNE for its lying statements against what they term the 'middlemen' and which is also a cowardly falsehood.

"Resolved, That all good, true, union men and women, discontinue their subscriptions, both in San Francisco and Alameda County.

"Resolved, That we, the members of the San Francisco Newsboys' Union, ensure Mr. Copeland, President of the San Francisco Allied Printing Trades Council for permitting himself to be a tool for the 'Post' and 'Bulletin' in signing such a false statement in order to have the public sympathy against the Newsboys' Union of San Francisco.

"Resolved, That everyone of the 850 members bought their papers 3 for 5 cents and did not know of such 'middlemen' until said article appeared in the 'Post' and 'Bulletin'.

"ROBT. WALL, President. "T. J. PERKINS, Recording Secretary."

The president addressed the union and asked all the little members if they wished to buy papers at the rate of two and one-half cents per copy. In one minute the whole body said "no."

EZRA KENDALL AT MACDONOUGH.

The mere announcement that Lieber and Company are the managers of Ezra Kendall in his new three-act comedy "The Vinegar Buyer" is enough to convince the average theater-goer that the attraction is well worth seeing. Kendall is famous as a funny man and the management too well known to give the public anything else but entertainments of the very best. With such attractions under their control as Viola Allen, James O'Neill, Kyle Belk, "The Christian" and Duse, it is safe to say that Ezra Kendall in "The Vinegar Buyer" will be one of the banner comedy attractions of the year. He will be at the Macdonough Theater on August 17 and 18.

FLEEING BURGLAR ESCAPES.

FOG AND DARKNESS PREVENT CITIZEN'S BULLET FROM TAKING EFFECT.

BERKELEY, August 13.—Joseph De Luca of the New Marine saloon on the corner of Fourth and Delaware street had an exciting experience with a burglar early this morning. After closing the saloon at midnight, Luca retired to his room in the rear.

About 4 o'clock he heard some one attempting to force a back door. Luca arose and peering through a window, saw a man working at the door. Tip-toeing back to his room Luca secured his revolver, and returning, threw open the window, at the same time calling upon the burglar to throw up his hands. The burglar turned with an oath and seeing Luca in the window started to run. Luca called upon him to halt, but the burglar, who was in a hurry, continued in his flight. Luca then fired, but in the darkness and fog the bullet apparently missed.

The matter was reported to Marshal Kerns this morning, but outside of a vague description furnished by Luca, there is no clue as to the identity of the thief. It is thought, however, that it is the same burglar that has been operating for the past two weeks in the West End.

LIVELY RUNAWAY.

Dr. O. C. Hyde of 1107 Eighth street and W. W. Crane, passing teller of the Union National Bank, were the victims of a runaway accident last evening, which came near resulting in their death. They were driving along Twelfth street in Hyde's rig when the horse took fright at something on the sidewalk and ran away. All efforts to stop them failed. At the corner of Grove street the horses struck across a vacant lot, the buggy struck a tree and the doctor and his companion were hurled violently to the ground. As he went through the air, Dr. Hyde struck a vacant lot, the buggy struck a tree and the doctor and his companion were hurled violently to the ground. were broken, although both gentlemen sustained wrenching backs. The buggy was badly wrecked.

Substitution or strict rectitude in handling drugs?

Suppose you were directed to get a certain medicine for some dear friend of yours whose health was wavering in the balance.

Suppose the druggist you went to trusted you into something else that was "just as good." Suppose then that your dear one slipped slowly backward until the critical stage was passed, beyond which no medicine could avail.

Then suppose you found that the name of the firm on the bottle you had bought was fictitious, that the medicine was in reality made where you bought it and was sold you purely because the profit was larger. Would you ever forgive the substitution?

This illustration is not overdrawn. Such cases should not occur, but they do. Such patients should be under physician's care. But could you trust a druggist with a prescription who practices substitution in other ways continually?

You must take your druggist's word for most of the drug store articles you buy. Choose your druggist with at least as much care as you would your jeweler.

If you trade at Bowman's you take no chances—you may be sure that whatever you get is pure and genuine and that the price is the lowest always.
